BONN, Germany, (AP)—The German newspaper Abendpost, said Wednesday U. S. ambassador to Russia Charles Bohlen accused Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of betraying an American secret during his Moscow negotiations with Soviet leaders.

The paper said Adenauer disclosed Bohlen's accusation in an off-the-record talk with six American correspondents here Tuesday. Abendpost quoted Adenauer as saying the charge was made during a "temperamental" exchange between Bohlen and Bonn's ambassador to NATO, Herbert Blankenhorn, in Moscow.

The paper said Bohlen thought Adenauer had betrayed to the Russians what was described as the secret of an American balloon-leaflet campaign directed at the Soviet Union.

Call Account Correct
Two participants in the talk with Adenauer said the Abendpost account was correct. Bohlen currently is on vacation from his post in Moscow.

The incident followed the display by Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin of a big balloon which he claimed had landed in the Soviet Union with a load of American propaganda. The Russians formally complained while Adenauer was in Moscow that huge American propaganda balloons released in West Germany were endangering air traffic behind the Iron Curtain.

According to Abendpost, Adenauer told the correspondents that while the final communiqué on the Soviet-West German talks was being prepared, he and Bulganin took a walk in the garden. Bulganin brought up the subject of the balloons but Adenauer said he knew nothing of them. Bulganin then offered to show him one. After an interval a balloon with two wooden boxes, one large and one small, was brought into the garden.

Bulganin pointed out to Adenauer markings indicating it was made by a firm in Cleveland, Ohio. Displays Pamphlets Bulganin also produced a pamphlet made up on the outside like a Russian provincial newspaper. Inside, however, was an attack on Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev in Russian, accompanied by an illustration picturing him as an ape. This, he told Adenauer, was one of the leaflets released from the balloon.

Adenauer said he told Bulganin he would mention the matter to the American authorities. When Blankenhorn went to Bohlen to report on the progress of negotiations, he told him of the balloon incident. Then, said the Abendpost, Bohlen reacted "temperamentally," accusing Adenauer of betraying an American secret.

Reports Colored—?

The paper said that Adenauer related this incident to the American correspondents as a possible explanation of misunderstanding in Washington of the West German agreement to establish diplomatic relations with Moscow. It quoted Adenauer as saying that perhaps Bohlen's anger over this incident had colored his reports from Moscow to Washington, making them unnecessarily alarming.

Adenauer was said to have insisted that he confined his observations to Bulganin to the remark that he would mention the matter to the American authorities. Adenauer also said Bohlen apparently was unaware that the balloon campaign had been publicly announced in Munich.

The American-financed Free Europe Committee in Munich, which releases balloons, has denied they carry Russian language leaflets or that they are aimed at Soviet Russia. The committee says it has released 342,791 balloons in the last 18 months carrying over 200 million leaflets to Communist-dominated Czechoslovakia, Poland and Hungary.

USAF CONTRACT INVESTIGATION IS LAUNCHED

Appropriations Committee launched an investigation Wednesday of what House Democratic Leader McCormack of Massachusetts called a "$2,400,000,000 'bonanza contract' between the Air Force and private telephone companies, contract" between the Air Force and the Air Force.

The Air Force replied that the contract plans had been fully reported to congressional committees earlier this year, and that Congress has already appropriated "substantial" funds for sites and construction of facilities. It said cancellation of the contract now might make the government liable for a penalty which could reach 222 million dollars.

Contract For Conversion

At issue is a contract for conversion of the present air defense communications system to a "semiautomatic ground environment (Sage)" system. The Air Force contract is with a group of private companies headed by the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. and the Western Electric Co.

The companies would build the communications system and lease it to the Air Force at regular toll charges for a 10-year period. Engineering and construction work already is under way.

Chairman Cannon (D-Mo) of the Appropriations Committee ordered the inquiry after McCormack disclosed a ruling by Comptroller General Joseph Campbell that the contract lacked congressional authorization.

The Air Force confirmed this, but Asst. Secretary Lytle Garlock said Campbell had agreed to reconsider the ruling.

May Ban Payments

The effect of the ruling by Campbell, the government's chief auditor, is to ban payments under the contract unless Congress specifically approves.

The fact that Campbell's ruling, made Aug. 15, was first made public by such a key Democrat as the House majority leader indicated that Democrats are hopeful an investigation of the contract will provide fodder for next year's political campaigns.

In a statement to which a copy of the ruling was attached, McCormack called "the Dixon-Yates deal small in comparison to what is involved in this transaction," which he said "is clearly a secret effort to bypass Congress."

Under the contract, AT&T and the Western Electric are to finance construction and installation of equipment at eight combat centers and 32 direction centers and to provide service to the government at cost of as much as 240 million dollars annually. They will retain ownership of the facilities.

Israeli Forces Take Enemy Border Sector

EL100 czeczc nypn1241ped 21 JERUSALEM (AP)—Israel announced today that her forces have occupied the Nizama sector of the Negev Desert demilitarized zone along the Egyptian border.

A spokesman for the Israeli Foreign Ministry said the action was taken because of the "continued presence of two Egyptian military outposts in this territory inside Israel" and because the Egyptians had demolished Israeli border markers.

Reports from Cairo said the Egyptians had been informed officially of the Israeli action but there was no immediate comment. Sources in the Egyptian capital said U. N. truce observers had been sent to investigate.

The Nizama sector is separate from, and south of, the Egyptian-held Gaza Strip.

General Ordered To Set Up New Council

PARIS (AP)—The French resident general of Morocco returned Wednesday to his post with orders to put aside Sultan Mohammed Ben Moulay Araf and set up a Regency Council.

Resident Gen. Pierre Boyer de Latour du Moulin had orders from Premier Edgar Faure to execute the first steps in a reform program which the government hopes will stop bloodshed in the rich and strategic North African protectorate.

A big question remained: Will the Sultan go?

Reports from Morocco told of demonstrations at Rabat, Meknes, Oujda and other parts of the country by European residents against the departure of Ben Moulay Araf. French settlers mounted a guard around the Sultan's palace to "prevent" his leaving.

PLUSH VENICE WEDDING JOINS OLD FAMILIES

VENICE, Italy (AP)—Lovely 15-year-old Princess Virginia Ira Furstenberg married Prince Alfonso Hohenlohe-Langeburg, 31, Wednesday in Italy's wedding-of-the-year.

Thousands of Venetians and tourists cheered as they rode away in a gold-trimmed gondola to a giant reception after speaking their vows in the 16th Century church of St. Sebastian.

The marriage united two families whose ancestors were princes of the Holy Roman Empire, and led the Crusades to Jerusalem. They are related to a score of Europe's royal families, including the Hapsburgs and the Hohenzollerns.

Will Visit 'Falls'

Even so, the newlyweds intend to go to Niagara Falls on their honeymoon after first taking a leisurely motor trip to Paris. They met a year ago at a wedding in Germany.

Princess Virginia's family traces its origins into the dim ages before Charlemagne. Prince Alfonso's lineage goes back to the 12th century. His father is married to the sister of the Duke of Edinburgh. He now lives most of the time in Mexico City, where the young couple plan to live after a long honeymoon. He also owns a castle in Spain.

Among some 1,000 wedding presents were two diamond rings given by her mother, and two huge emeralds which an ancestor of Prince Alfonso carried back from Jerusalem during the Crusades. Three new cars were given them by friends and relatives.

15-Year Tunis Siege Closes With Decree

TUNIS, Tunisia (AP)—The state of siege, in effect in Tunisia for more than 15 years, was ended Wednesday. The Bey of Tunis attached his seal to a decree submitted by Adm. M. Laurin to this effect.

The admiral, a Frenchman, is defense minister under the new home rule accords which leave defense and foreign relations in French hands. The state of siege was proclaimed in Tunisia at the outbreak of World War II.

Tunisia's first home rule government under the French-Tunisian accords was sworn into office earlier this month.

STEAL GUARD'S WEAPONS

RENO, Nev. (AP)—William Powell's tool shed had been broken into twice in recent weeks so he armed himself with a pistol and an automatic shotgun and settled down to spend the night in the shed. But he made the mistake of stepping outside for a while. When he returned, the pistol and rifle were gone, along with an electric grinder. They're still looking for the burglar.

NEW KIND OF SALE

LOS ANGELES (AP)—There's one dress shop here that may be having a different sort of fire sale soon. A skunk got loose in the shop and fired several times before he was trapped by three policemen. ## PLAN MORE AID TO LIFT DIP IN FARM PRICES

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration looked to the National Agricultural Advisory Commission today for suggestions on how to bolster sagging farm income.

The 18-member bipartisan body of farm leaders began a two-day quarterly meeting with that as its major problem.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson said the commission will go over proposals for aiding farmers by channeling more money into their pockets.

The secretary said last week that the administration will offer specific recommendations to Congress. Suggestions of the commission doubtless will help formulate administration proposals.

Reviews Farm Policies

The commission was appointed by President Eisenhower to review government farm policies and programs and to offer advice on ways to improve them. It played a major role in the development of the farm program which the President recommended to Congress last year and which was written into law. That program features flexible price supports which this year supplanted the high, rigid supports of the Truman era.

The commission meets behind closed doors. It rarely makes its discussions or recommendations public, and is expected to follow this policy on this week's meeting.

The meeting comes at a time when Democrats are sharply criticizing the administration's farm program and contending that the Republicans are allowing agriculture to sink into a depression.

YORK SPRINGS BANK OBSERVES 50TH BIRTHDAY

Merkel Landis, Carlisle, associated with the York Springs National Bank when it was established, related details of the origin of the bank at a dinner meeting Thursday evening at the York Springs fire hall commemorating the 50th anniversary of the founding of the bank.

One hundred forty attended the dinner including employees of the bank, its officials, stockholders and guests.

William M. Weidner, president of the bank, presented Mr. Landis with a watch in appreciation of Landis' part in the organization of the financial institution.

Others Receive Watch

Two other presentations were made. Guy E. Bream presented Mr. M. Weidner with a watch and T. N. Cushman presented E. S. Guise, cashier of the bank with a similar watch for their lengthy service with the bank. Mr. Bream and Mr. Cushman are members of the board of directors of the bank.

Judge W. C. Sheely, principal speaker complimented the officials of the organization, noting, "that this bank has continued to prosper in its community for a half century is a proof that the men who have been its officers and employees have given excellent service to the community. They have gained and held the confidence of the public by their actions, and because they merited that trust, the bank has been an integral part of the area, serving to make it an ever better community."

Following the dinner the officers of the bank conducted the guests on a tour of the newly renovated bank building.

HOUSEKEEPING DISCUSSED AT Y. W. C. A. SCHOOL

Old and modern methods of housekeeping were discussed at the Business and Professional Women's Club's first session in their "School for Modern Living" held at the YWCA Thursday night. Mrs. Elizabeth Wible, home economist for the Metropolitan Edison Co., York, spoke on "Streamlined Housekeeping."

She said that in 1920 women became conscious of the overlapping details of housework, and colleges and universities started to "count the steps" required for their daily duties. "It was soon proved that this was not the way to efficiency but that tools were more important combined with mind and body," she said. She discussed the use of the automatic ovens, broilers, automatic skillets, mixed, pressure cookers, rotisseries, dishwashers and freezers used in the modern kitchen and urged the use of aluminum foil and parchment in cooking.

She declared "there are no longer such things as left-overs for the modern cook but are now planned-overs and meals, lunches to carry, and pastries can be prepared a week in advance." She explained how to clean weekly "so that the old-fashioned semi-annual bouts of housekeeping are no longer necessary."

Miracle fabrics which save dry cleaning and laundry, step-saving bed-making and many other daily tasks were also discussed.

Miss Mary Kay Baughman, program chairman, opened the meeting and Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler conducted the session with 27 in attendance.

Next Thursday all standing committees will meet at 7 o'clock and the monthly meeting of the cabinet will be held at 8 o'clock.

THREE WOMEN DO POLICE WORK IN GETTYSBURG

Gettysburg now has three policewomen — for school crossing protection service.

Chief of Police Jack Bartlett and Burgess William G. Weaver said the three had been appointed in order to provide better protection for the youngsters at Meade and Lincoln Schools.

When it became apparent that there were more crossings than policemen, and the chief could not secure men for the job, he decided that "women might be glad to take the job to protect the youngsters."

Thus the problem was solved. Mrs. Bartlett is directing traffic at the Springs Ave. crossing at Meade School. Mrs. Ethel Ditzler and Mrs. Helen Helfrich are directing traffic at the Hanover and York St. crossings at Lincoln School.

Receive Scale Pay

Burgess Weaver administered the oath to the three women making them the first special policewomen of the borough. It was decided that since they are doing regular police work they should receive regular special police pay, $1.10 an hour. The women work more than an hour a day at the crossings, from 8:15 to 8:45 a.m.; 11:45 to 12 noon; from 12:30 to 1 p.m. and from 3:30 to 3:45 p.m.

MRS. G. V. REBERT HONORED FOR 40 YEARS TEACHING

The nobleness of the teaching profession was extolled by C. A. McCauslin, principal of the Franklin Twp. consolidated schools, at a dinner Thursday evening in Sanders' Restaurant, Hunterstown, honoring Mrs. Gladys V. Rebert, McKnightstown, for her nearly 40 years of teaching in the Adams County schools.

McCauslin challenged retiring teachers to "give continued heartfelt support to the promotion of schools."

Mrs. Rebert, who retired as a teacher this fall, thanked the faculty for the tribute paid her. "Teaching is not only a profession," she said, "but a fine art." She asked the teachers "never to sell their profession short because the greatest thing in a class room is a human soul."

Show Old Pictures

She referred to the "superior quality of Mr. McCauslin's supervision which always works for the good of the child."

Pictures were displayed showing the various schools in Hamiltonban, Conowingo, Franklin and Mt. Joy Twp. where she had taught. Photographs of former pupils were also shown. She read a poem entitled, "My Years With You."

The table and restaurant were decorated with mixed autumn flowers.

Mrs. Rebert, although she has given up her teaching responsibilities, is still active in public life. She is leader of Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 27 of Cashtown, secretary of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Cashtown Community Fire Department and is vice president of the Associated Arts and Crafts Guild of Adams County. She is replacement clerk in the McKnightstown post office.

JAYCEES HEAR BULLET COACH ON CAGE PLANS

Bob Davies, Gettysburg College's new golf, soccer and basketball coach, told the local Junior Chamber of Commerce at its meeting Thursday evening at Bankert's Restaurant, Littlestown Rd., that he could make no predictions concerning this year's college basketball team except that "it will be in there fighting."

But he did hazard the prediction that "the 1957-58 prospects look very good."

He said he based his predictions on one thing — height. This year's varsity squad does not have height and "if you don't have the height to get possession of the ball off the board you are in for a tough night." Davies himself is proof that the relatively "little guy" can prove a great basketball player, even though lack of height is a handicap. No giant, Davies played 10 seasons with the professional Rochester Royals, was named National Basketball Association rookie of the year in 1946 and captained the Royals for several years and scored over 1,000 points a year in three of his years with the team.

"Game Of Mistakes"

The height, he held, is necessary to get possession of the ball, after that "basketball is a game of mistakes. It's a traffic problem, a question of causing your opponent to make the mistake so you can shake someone free."

The 1957-58 varsity team at Gettysburg College should have the qualifications to do "a very good job," Davies held. This year's up coming freshman team will include men up to six feet eight inches in height. "We could put up a Freshman team today whose average height would be six feet, five inches," Davies said.

Because the tall youth "usually is awkward until about a year or two after he gains his full growth," Davies said he looked forward to some of the freshmen players this year being "somewhat awkward," but "in a year or two they should be ready to be great players."

"Work And Work"

He added that "the really good athlete, just like the really good musician, or the really good businessman, is not born that way. He must take his God-given abilities and work and work to perfect them. There are many who have the physical qualifications to begin with, but it takes extra effort and extra determination to perfect those abilities."

Davies said he "plans to live here the rest of my life. I like Gettysburg, and Hen Bream is the greatest guy there is. What more could anyone ask."

Ninth Grader Is Critically Ill With Lockjaw

Eugene Reynolds, 14-year-old ninth grade student at York Springs High School, remained in a critical condition today at the Harrisburg Polyclinic Hospital suffering from lockjaw.

The youth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Reynolds, Latimore Twp., York Springs R. D., became slightly ill while at school Monday, but recovered and returned to school Tuesday. He attended classes until the last period of the day and then, reporting that he again felt ill, left school and went home. A physician was summoned. When the doctor arrived the child's jaws had begun to stiffen and close.

He told his parents he had scratched his foot with a pitch fork while digging potatoes from his father's garden last week, but said that the scratch had been very slight and he had not reported it, nor thought more about it until he became ill.

Most of Adams County will continue with daylight saving time until October 30, a survey today disclosed.

In Gettysburg, the schools, borough council, major industries, Gettysburg College and others will continue on daylight time for another month. Delone High School will continue on fast time.

Only the New Oxford area is reported ready to resume standard time Sunday morning. Most of the New Oxford stores have announced they plan to revert to standard time Sunday. The Lower Adams Joint School System will change to standard time. Protestant churches in the New Oxford area will continue on daylight time.

The New Oxford town council previously announced it plans to "use the time in use in neighboring communities" and all the neighboring communities have indicated their intention of operating on daylight time for another month.

At York Springs, the borough council had announced its intention to continue on daylight time, and the North Adams Joint School System is continuing on fast time.

The Upper Adams Joint School System is planning to continue on "fast time" until October 30 because the principal industries in its area will continue to operate on daylight time.

Similarly, the Fairfield Joint School System has announced its plans to continue on "fast time." Littlestown borough council and the Littlestown Joint School System are continuing on daylight time. The Conowingo Joint School System and East Berlin plan to remain on daylight time.

George E. Inskip, supervising principal of the Fairfield schools announced today a "compromise" solution to the problem of daylight saving time in the Fairfield Joint Schools.

The Fairfield Joint Schools will continue on daylight time, but beginning Monday, the schools will open at 9 a.m. instead of 8:30 a.m., and the buses will also begin their schedules one half hour later.

Argentina Readies Rousing Welcome For New President

By BRUCE HENDERSON

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Argentina's capital prepared a gala welcome today for Maj. Gen. Edouardo Lonardi, conqueror of Juan Peron and top man in the new government.

Lonardi arrives here by plane from his revolutionary headquarters of Cordoba for his installation as provisional president.

The revolution leader's entry into Buenos Aires was preceded by an order from the provisional government for the arrest of all Peron supporters in the national Congress. Earlier, the new regime had dissolved the Congress, in which Peronista party members held all 34 Senate seats and all but 12 places in the 155-member lower house.

Violence flared here and in Rosario, Argentina's second largest city, as students and other foes of the ousted dictator moved to eradicate evidences of Peron's power. Street fights occurred throughout Buenos Aires yesterday despite efforts of armed patrols to keep crowds from gathering. Several Peronista party buildings were wrecked. Pictures and busts of Peron and his late wife Eva were torn from walls and destroyed.

Baby Found Abandoned In Atlantic City Church Is Not Infant Stolen On Monday

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The growing search for kidnapped Robert Marcus centered again today in San Jose, Calif., after spreading briefly last night across the nation to Atlantic City, N. J.

Hopes rose briefly that a week-old boy found abandoned in a church in Atlantic City was the Marcus baby. Robert was snatched from the nursery at Mt. Zion Hospital here Monday when only 2 days old.

Dr. Marcus and his 29-year-old wife Hanna studied an Associated Press Wirephoto of the Atlantic City baby and said:

"He is not our son."

There were many points of similarity between the infants.

Dr. Emanuel Harrison Nickman, Atlantic City pediatrician, said the boy found in a brown paper sack in St. Nicholas Catholic Church was "no more than a week old."

Both Were Circumcised

The founding had been circumcised. So had Robert.

Robert weighed 6 pounds 6 1/2 ounces; the other boy 7 pounds 1 ounce.

A final check of footprints of the two infants will be made by the FBI in Washington today. The FBI had AP Wirephotos and airmailed pictures of Robert's footprints.

Meanwhile, 1,000 or more per-

GIRL SCOUTS TO HOLD FUND DRIVE IN RURAL AREAS

Plans for the annual county-wide financial campaign of the Adams County Girl Scouts were outlined Thursday evening at a meeting in the Girl Scout office, First National Bank building.

Clair Troelsle, Littlestown, finance chairman, presided at the meeting attended by the neighborhood chairmen of the Girl Scouts who will conduct the drive in their localities.

The campaign is to be conducted from October 3 through October 15 tying-in with the Community Chest drive in Gettysburg. The borough makes its contribution, $2,000, to the Girl Scouts of the county through its Community Chest campaign.

According to plans outlined Thursday night, the county campaign will seek to raise $2,200. The campaign's indebtedness is approximately $4,500.

The Girl Scout council is seeking $4,200 this year for its regular budget, of which $2,000 will come from Gettysburg.

At the present time there are 39 Girl Scout units in the county with a membership of 850 with 235 adult leaders.

Train Strikes Tractor; 2 Hurt

Michael Keefer, aged eight years, and his father, Gen. Keefer, 56, McKnightstown, suffered injuries Thursday afternoon about 5 o'clock when the tractor on which they were riding was struck by the local Western Maryland Railroad "shifter."

Young Keefer was reported in a satisfactory condition at the Warner Hospital where he was admitted as a patient as the result of two puncture wounds of his left side and multiple brush burns of the body.

His father was treated in the dispensary for brush burns of the right leg.

The accident is reported to have occurred when the tractor is said to have stalled on a private crossing located on the Keefer farm property. The front part of the tractor was torn off and about $75 damage was done to the railroad engine. Milton R. Tipton, 167 E. Middle St., local railroad detective who is investigating, said the train engineer was J. E. Hye, Hanover.

George A. Miller, Marsh Creek Heights, who underwent an operation Tuesday at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, is in a critical condition.

Baby Found Abandoned In Atlantic City Church Is Not Infant Stolen On Monday

sons—police, firemen, civil defense workers and college students—started a house-by-house search of the Willow Glen district of San Jose, 50 miles south of here.

A husky blonde woman with a baby has been seen there repeatedly under peculiar circumstances in the last two days, but never detained for questioning.

An untidy, buxom blonde—presumably with a mother complex—35 to 40 years old and 130-140 pounds, is sought. Such a woman was seen at the nursery just before the snatch.

Hoax Ransom Note

Police Chief Ray Blackmore of San Jose said, "We believe we are going to be successful. The fact we have not found the baby the first few hours doesn't make me believe the woman and infant are not here."

A $500 ransom note, demanding $5,000, entered the case yesterday and promptly brought the FBI into the search. Police branded it the work of a crank—and failed to nab him when they set a trap.

The cruel hoax nearly caused the collapse of Dr. Marcus, 34. He was taken to the hospital—where he is on the staff—and given sedatives. In the same room his wife is being fed intravenously; she has refused all food since her child was stolen.

ELECT FOUR TO ADVISORY UNIT

At a meeting of policyholders and local company representatives of the Nationwide Insurance Companies, known prior to September 1 as the Farm Bureau Insurance Companies, Thursday night in the social room of the Reformed Church, four policyholders were elected to the Policyholder Advisory Committee. Dr. O. D. Coble, Bendersville; Dr. L. C. Keefe, Gettysburg; Robert C. Lott, Aspers R. 1; Elmer Schriver, Gettysburg R. 3. Rev. Charles E. Held, Gettysburg R. 1, and Clarence J. Wayright, Gettysburg R. 2, also serve on the committee. The committee will select one representative and an alternate to represent policyholders at regional meetings at Harrisburg.

Approximately 200 policyholders and local company representatives attended Thursday's meeting. Earl E. Andrus, local claims manager, was chairman.

A sound movie was shown, featuring a tale by the companies' president, Murray D. Lincoln, and other officials explaining the development of the companies and the reason for the decision to change the name.

Rev. Charles E. Held, who represented policyholders last April at a meeting in Columbus, Ohio, reported on that meeting.

Ray Shetter, of Biglerville, served as moderator for the discussion session.

SPECIAL DEER TAGS AVAILABLE

Antlerless deer licenses for the 1955 season, December 12-13, will go on sale in the county treasurer's office, the only place such licenses can be obtained, next Monday.

The Game Commission points out that the 240,250 "doe" licenses available to hunters is the largest number ever issued for an antlerless season in Pennsylvania. It therefore appears likely that anyone who wants to hunt antlerless deer this year will find a license available in some county of the state.

The game authorities again call attention to certain northern counties where the antlerless license quota is high, the need for reducing the herd is great, and the likelihood of obtaining a license is best. These counties are: Warren, McKean, Elk, Forest, Bradford, Pike, Susquehanna, and Wayne.

It is recommended that the sportsman who plans to hunt antlerless deer in a county other than the one in which he lives give early consideration to obtaining a license in a high quota county.

Application forms may be obtained from any agent who issues the "regular" hunting license.

JAYCEES HEAR

were discussed at the business meeting held following Davies' talk. President John Crow reported that equipment for the Farmers Field Day demonstrations to be held under Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsorship October 25 has been secured. The program will be held at the high school here for farmers throughout the county and "we are getting excellent cooperation from Elmer Schriver and the County Extension office and all whom we have asked so far to help," President Crow said.

William Lentz reported progress on the annual "Voice of Democracy" speech contest held by the Jaycees for high school students.

Donald Trone announced preliminary plans for the Halloween float to be constructed by the Jaycees and asked further suggestions for themes from the members.

Donald Becker urged members to attend a district meeting at Chambersburg, adding "this will be the first regional meeting conducted by the new Chambersburg unit which we established last year." The regional session, at which Becker will preside as regional vice president, Magnus Flaws will report as regional promoting chairman and Robert Fryling will report for the state membership committee, among others, will be held at the Chambersburg VFW Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Members were urged to attend a ladies' night Halloween party at Hanover October 24 at which 18 chapters in two regions will be represented.

Plans for attendance at a charter night at Mt. Holly Springs October 6 were listed.

Chapter Wins Awards

President Crow reported that the local Jaycees won three of the six awards given by the state Junior Chamber in June, securing a third place award for its caravan, fifth for a float and sixth for its junior golf program. In a state-wide contest for points gained during the first six months of the year, Gettysburg was tied for second place in the state.

Reports of President Crow, Thomas Metz and Fred Attinger on attendance at the Third Middle-Atlantic Institute of the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, last Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Winston-Salem, were presented.

Crow told of the work carried on by Jaycees units within a 100-mile area of the flood disaster sections of Pennsylvania. "Gettysburg just missed being included by a few miles, we were just outside the area asked to help," Crow said. Teams of Jaycees members went to the scene "and are still going to the Stroudsburg area" to help clean up the communities.

"When you see the tons and tons of muck and debris that have been deposited in homes you know why it takes a long time to clean up even one home," Crow said.

Metz told the group of "Operation Brotherhood" being carried on by the Jaycees nationally. The program supports medical teams in Southern Viet Nam in Indochina, "and they are the only doctors there. People come for miles and stand in line for medical treatment." Cost of maintaining one of the teams per day is $25, he said.

Example For Youth

Metz also reported "the thing that most impressed me was a statement that the high school age youths look up to the men and women of the Junior Chamber of Commerce age, that the persons of our age are the heroes of youth, and thus we must watch our conduct so that we might set high standards for the coming generation."

President Crow reported on efforts of the Jaycees nationally to raise funds for the U. S. Olympic team, and added, "we hope to be able to make our contribution from Gettysburg to help send our athletes to compete with athletes throughout the world."

Magnus Flaws, regional extension chairman, reported on plans for sponsorship by the local Jaycee group of a new chapter on the county.

Francis Small welcomed three guests at the meeting, Merle Rudisill, Howard Fox and Eugene Sanders, and told of plans to seek new members for the Jaycees.

Washington News Letter

By Jane Eads

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wonder if handsome Henry Byroade, young new U.S. ambassador to Egypt, is casing the pyramids with a yearning to tear them down and put them together again?

"He could probably do it — and singlehandedly," some of his friends say.

The Indiana-born West Point graduate and savvy diplomat has a reputation for singular engineering feats. While serving with the Army Engineer Corps in the China-India-Burma theater during World War II, he rose to be the "youngest brigadier general in Army history." He is credited with having built some 53 airdromes.

After a serious bout with typhoid he returned to the Armed Forces Staff College at Norfolk, Va. There he bought for $150 a wrecked boat and completely rebuilt it with such fancies as rosewood and mahogany deck, new ribs, and new motor. He was offered $4,300 for it, but brought it up the Potomac instead when he was transferred to the Pentagon. Later he turned his talents to rebuilding a 38-foot cruiser — after carrying out close to 50 wheelbarrows of debris. This time he even rebuilt the motor.

Entered State Department
He went to the State Department in 1949, and became assistant secretary in 1952. He spotted a wrecked Lincoln in an old automobile junkyard he used to pass on the way to his office. "It was

New Mexico Quits Traditional Manana

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — Members of the New Mexico Manufacturers Assn. have advocated the abandonment of the traditional "manana" of New Mexico's Spanish-speaking heritage and advocated making it a "today" state.

The association said recently "every businessman who has seen fit to take a membership should fully realize the time to act must be now to promote our great state for what it is."

A DELEGATE

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The husband of a local woman had just left the house. His wife was washing the breakfast dishes when the doorbell rang.

She thought her husband had forgotten something and was returning for it. "That you angel?" she called. "No indeed," answered a pleasant voice, "but I'm from the same department."

The visitor was Episcopal Bishop Clinton S. Quinn.

a challenge," he told friends: So he bought it, rebuilt it in four months, and drove it to work from his home in Fairfax, Va. The ambassador also rebuilt his home, and cleared four acres of forest around it. He also rebuilds old guns.

"When I can work with my hands," he told friends, "all the tensions and worries of a busy day in the office with its problems and responsibilities of foreign affairs quickly disappear."

The Associated Press
Springtime is love time. Every little girl is busy planning a flowered bonnet, pressing her nose against a shop window with thoughts that go like this...

I wonder whether if I buy it (1) will he like it (2) will he notice me (3) will someone notice me (in that hat.)

Love is in the air it would seem from the rash of mail with hearts-and-flowers queries at this time of the year...

One girl writes that she's heard the "easiest way to a man's heart is silence. But how mysterious can you get?" she asks, "If you never tell him the way you feel about things, how will he ever get to like you?"

Another lass has heard that "all men are interested in girls who get out of luck."

"All Men Are Immature"
Still another young filly thinks "all men are immature. If not they are in the Army, traveling or tied to a project that absorbs their time. So how is a girl who feels like an old maid at 18 ever going to meet a young man?"

So it goes.

Well who can best comment on these small worries of the young ladies than the young lads. And here's what one has to say...

"As far as silence being golden, it would pay some girls to remember that at the right time. There is a time for listening or watching and a time for conversation. The girl who has nothing to say most of the time is just the one who gabs when you're trying to watch an interesting baseball or hockey game. Just as soon as interest is centered away from certain females, they get desperate trying to retrieve it by gushing on about nothing."

As for necking, a young man assures us that "taint so and that some girls love to exaggerate because they have an inferiority complex. He adds:

"Nobody Fault But Hers"

"Anyway if a girl doesn't pick a nice boy to date it's nobody's fault but hers. I haven't any sympathy with girls who sit in parked cars with strange boys. It could all be solved by having a few dates with the boy at home and observing his character before she goes out alone with him. Too many girls are 'date-beavers.' They're so anxious for a date, they take anything that comes along."

One popular boy thought any girl who couldn't find an interesting boy to date was just plain lazy. He says:

"Of course there are boys to be met. I go to many parties and dance where every girl is a new face. It is just a question of getting an invitation. Maybe a girl would be smart to develop girl friends before she seeks boy friends. One leads to the other usually. The double date is an accepted thing by two good friends, and that is one good way to meet a new boy."

LITTLESTOWN CLUB TOLD OF "HERBS, USES"

Mrs. William C. Darragh, Gettysburg R. 1, spoke on "Herbs and Their Uses" at the first fall meeting of the Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and vicinity, Wednesday evening in the POS of A Hall, when the annual garden harvest display and sale also took place.

She told of the days of the early explorers and spice traders, and showed a variety of the better known herbs used for both medicinal and culinary arts. She spoke of the uses of herbs in their separate groups and told how to dry and use them for flavoring and for the blending and seasoning of food.

Plans were discussed for the annual solicitation of funds for the Adams County Girl Scout Council.

Mrs. Charles W. Weikert, chairman of the committee, reported on the meeting of her committee with S. Clair Trostle, fund drive chairman, Mrs. Monroe G. Morelock, neighborhood chairman, and local troop leaders, held last week in preparation for the drive. She said all the funds this year will be used to help pay for the recently purchased Girl Scout camp, near Fairfield. It was also stated that if the individual donor desires, contributions received at the conclusion of the drive may be earmarked for use among the local troops.

There was a call for volunteers to assist with the house-to-house solicitation on Monday, October 3. Those planning to help will meet at the engine house at 6 p.m., and a Girl Scout will accompany each solicitor. A discussion was also held as to whether the Woman's Club would continue to sponsor the Girl Scout organization or whether each troop should find it on sponsor. Other club members who are serving on the Girl Scout committee this year are Mrs. James W. Dutterer, Mrs. Alvin J. Groff, Miss Mary Rita Redding, Mrs. Charles H. Fissel and Mrs. Vernon Snyder.

Pleads For Spotters
Paul E. Hiltbricker Jr., chief observer of the Littlestown Ground Observation Corps, pleaded for additional spotters. He announced that women and teen-agers are asked to serve only from noon to 6 p.m., if it is a husband and wife team. Wednesday is Community Club day for the spotter station. Mrs. Leroy W. Bish is arranging the schedule.

Mrs. Chester S. Byers, president, presided at the meeting. Mrs. Fred P. Blocher, secretary; Mrs. Paul E. Altoff, treasurer, and Mrs. Edward T. Richardson Sr., chairman of the cheer committee, reported. The meeting opened with the singing of "America," salute to the flag and the reading of the Club Collect. Mrs. Byers announced that anyone desiring subscriptions to the Pennsylvania Clubwoman should notify her for information. She expressed regret that the Club will not be represented at the South Central District meeting in Altoona, Thursday.

Introduce Guests
Mrs. Robert H. Miller presented the report of the auditing committee, which also included Mrs. James W. Dutterer. The question of indecent literature comics and paper-back novels was referred to the Youth Conservation committee, consisting of Mrs. Clayton L. Evans, chairman, Mrs. Harold Sparver, Mrs. Ralph A. Staley, Mrs. Ralph I. Unger, Mrs. Paul R. Snyder, Mrs. Robert Eckenrode, and Mrs. Paul E. Altoff.

Guests introduced were Mrs. Ralph Wantz, Mrs. W. W. Seibert, Mrs. Lottie Dutterer, Mrs. J. Walter Groce

2 ALTERNATE JURORS SOUGHT

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP)—With the selection of the regular jury completed, opposing attorneys turned their attention today to choosing two alternate jurors for the murder trial of Percy S. Haines.

Five persons were seated in the jury box yesterday to raise the total to seven men and five women selected from 91 prospective jurors during the first two days of the trial.

Haines is charged with the fatal shooting of Atty. John D. Faller Jr., 41, last Aug. 2 in the same courtroom where the trial is being held.

Dist. Atty. Clinton R. Weidner said he would seek a first degree murder verdict against the 60-year-old Newville R. 2 farmer. Faller was co-counsel for Haines' wife, Lulu, who had brought her husband into court on a non-support charge.

The courtroom shooting spree also resulted in injury to Judge Mark E. Garber, Mrs. Haines, and George Black, a Chambersburg attorney.

Jurors elected yesterday were Mrs. Gretchen Cline and Eugene Gearhart, both Boiling Springs; Lee W. Raffensperger, Carlisle; Frank E. Wolfe, Lemoyne; and Mrs. Hildegard Seiberling, Camp Hill.

and Mrs. Laura Myers. Refreshments were served by the September hostess committee, Mrs. Edward T. Richardson Sr., chairman.

The garden harvest display and sale were in charge of the Conservation and Gardens committee, Mrs. Clay I. Louse, chairman.

The program will be in charge of the Legislation and Citizenship committee, composed of Mrs. Wilbur A. Bankert, chairman, Mrs. Carroll E. Arter, Mrs. John D. Basehoar, Mrs. Melvin A. Miller, Mrs. Edward H. Brown and Mrs. James W. Fager.

repeatedly that they will not tolerate plotting to "upset the public tranquility."

Oscar Nicolini, communications minister under Peron, also was reported under arrest today. Numerous other officials of the old regime are in jail, while many have taken refuge in foreign embassies.

In a telephone interview from Cordoba, Maj. Eduardo Arenas, an aide to Lonardi, said the provisional government hopes to improve Argentine relations with the United States and other countries. He said the new President plans to hold elections as soon as possible.

(The New York Times in a dispatch from Buenos Aires said Lonardi promised to issue a call within 20 to 25 days for national elections so the Argentine people "can choose the government they want.")

The dispatch said Lonardi declared the voting would take place within six or seven months, as soon as new electoral rolls could be prepared.

Allenberry Will Present Comedy

Walter Massey has the top role in the comedy "Oh, Men! Oh, Women!" opening at Allenberry Playhouse, Boiling Springs, on Monday. Massey has played lead roles throughout the current season.

In the new comedy he plays Dr. Alan Coles, a psychoanalyst who learns from one of his patients, on the eve of his wedding, about the colorful past of his fiancée. The play, a spoof of psychoanalysis, shows how the doctor becomes enmeshed in absurd complications brought on by the revelations of his patients.

The doctor's fiancée, a zany chatterbox, will be played by Sally Kemp. Betsy Holt, Christian Flanders, and Reginald Rowland Jr. play featured roles in "Oh, Men! Oh, Women!"

The comedy, by Edward Chodorov, moves through three settings; the doctor's office, his fiancée's apartment, and aboard a luxury liner. At Allenberry, the sets are designed by Al Hamilton. The production is staged by Richard North Gage. "Oh, Men! Oh, Women!" will continue at the Playhouse for two weeks, running through Saturday, October 8.

A pound of magnesium now costs 28½ cents compared to 23 cents for a pound of aluminum.

YOUTH SUNDAY IS OBSERVED IN FAIRFIELD

Youth Sunday was observed last weekend at Zion Lutheran Church, Fairfield. During the Sunday School hour the pastor, Rev. Verle C. Schumacher, conducted the worship service and led eight young people in a panel discussion on Camp Nawakwa. Those participating were: Teddy Lowe, John Silex, Anna Lee Sanders, Randy Inskip, Calvin Paul Bream, Barbara Beard, Henry Sanders, and Richard Weikert, all of whom attended Camp Nawakwa last summer. Crafts made by the campers and their awards were displayed.

During the worship service, the youth of the congregation were in charge of the program. Anna Lee Sanders served as acolyte. The invitation to worship and benediction were read by James Landis Jr. A responsive reading was led by Emma Filsinger and the scripture lesson was read by Eileen Myers. Carl Filsinger Jr., reviewed the activities of the local Luther League over the past year and presented a brief meditation on "Christ Is Lord." Tom Dolly led in the recitation a litany. The ushers were John Silex and Teddy Lowe.

Selections were sung by the Youth Choir, directed by Mrs. William Strickhouse. The choir includes: Barbara Beard, Calvin Paul Bream, Susie Deardorff, Randall Inskip, James Kittinger, Carson Lowe, Connie Myers, Freda Myers, Nancy Myers, Julie Ross, Mary Jo Ross, Anna Lee Sanders, Henry Sanders, James Sanders, Ronald Sanders, Phyllis Snyder, Richard Weikert, and Susan Weikert, soloist. ## Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Class Officers, Student Head
Elected At H. S.: Thursday was Election Day at Gettysburg High School and 607 members of the four classes named their choices for class posts and for the new position of president of the student body.
Student election boards handled the voting and computed the results in the first election of the kind ever held at the local high school.

The election was planned and carried out by hold-over members of the student council without faculty assistance. Official booths and ballot boxes borrowed from the county commissioners were used at the four polling places set up from 9 a.m.
until 4 p.m.

Miss Sarah Jane Maust, a senior, defeated two boys in the same class for the honor of becoming the first president of the high school student body. Miss Maust carried the freshman and sophomore classes by wide margins, but lost the junior vote to Theodore Honer and the senior votes to Howard Sharrar by a few ballots.

President's Mother 86: Hyde Park,
N. Y., Sept. 21 (AP)—President Roosevelt and members of his family gathered today at his boyhood home for an informal observance of the 86th birthday of his mother, Mrs.
Sara Delano Roosevelt. The matriarch of Hyde Park house was on the front porch when her son arrived last night from Philadelphia, where he had pointed to free elections as a guarantee of "the complete and enduring safety of our form of government."

Weddings: Double Ceremony—A double wedding ceremony was performed Saturday evening at 5:30 o'clock at the summer cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Warner, along Marsh Creek, south of the Fairfield Road, in which Miss Kathryn E. Warner and Charles I. Bollinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice W. Bollinger, Gettysburg, and Mary Annella Siders, Altoona, and Celestine S. Stephens Jr., Hollidaysburg, were united in marriage.

The Rev. Seth C. Mowbray, pastor of the Gettysburg Presbyterian Church, performed the double ceremony before members of the immediate families. There were no attendants. The wedding ceremony took place before the open fireplace in the cottage which was decorated with fall flowers.

Miss Warner wore forest green silk crepe with brown accessories and Miss Siders was dressed in moss green silk with black accessories. Both wore corsages of white roses.

Population Of Adams County Put
At 39,461: Washington, Sept. 24 (AP)—
The census bureau, reporting that 56 of Pennsylvania's 67 counties increased their population in the last 10 years, made public the following figures for 1940 and 1950, respectively: Adams 39,461 and 37,128.

Weddings: Slade-Smith—Martin
A. Slade, son of M. A. Slade, Gettysburg, was married to Miss Rheta
Marie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Smith, Natrona, Pa., last Thursday. It has been announced. The marriage ceremony was performed at Baltimore, in All Saints Chapel, by the Rev. Arthur
C. Slade, an uncle of the bridegroom.

Margaret Smith, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid while Jack Tyler, Worcester, Mass., a cousin of the bridegroom, acted as best man. The bride was attired in a solder blue coat suit and the bride-maid wore a similar outfit of penny brown.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of the University of Pittsburgh, class of 1939, and Mr.
Slade attended the school for postgraduate work in chemistry this past year. He is employed as a chemist by a Baltimore concern.
Mrs. Slade attended the Natrona
Catholic Schools and the University of Pittsburgh. Mr. Slade attended St. Joseph's Academy, McSherrystown, and was graduated from Mt.
St. Mary's College High School,
Emmitsburg, before attending the University.

Following the return from the wedding trip the couple will live in Baltimore.

Today's Talk

FOR LOVE OF FRIENDS

There is a time in the life of each one of us when friends become our great possession. That means beyond price. They become our other self and our most natural consultants! If we have many friends, then we are rich indeed!
These friends grow upon us as we advance in years. A loyal and understanding friend has a living value far above all other precious things.

No one can be poor in this world so long as he has a friend. And what a joy it is to perform for a friend! To do the little things that mean so much. Even to be expendable for their sake at times.
Sacrificing is a high quality among genuine friends.

Wendell Phillips once met Nora Perry, the poetess, on the streets of Boston, and asked her where she was going. "To see a friend," she was replying. "Oh, take me with you," said Phillips. "I want to meet one!" Friends are rare creations, so we should select with care and understanding, and then stick to them through thick and thin to the very end. There is more genuine profit in the love of a friend changed in Wall Street.

I like to see in my friend far more good points than I have discovered in myself. If I try to see how many faults that friend has,
I am sure not to have him very long!
Friendship is no oneway street. There are wonderful people on both sides! Let's be happy travelers on either side.

It is because of the love of friends that we are the happy and useful folks that we are. Without friends life would be dull and difficult.
We would then have no one with whom to share our joys, and none to go to when in need of comfort and an uplift of spirit. Nothing is truer than that we cannot live to ourselves alone.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Our Heavenly Father!"

Just Folks

"NOW THERE'S A BOY"
When I was born, my mother told,
The English doctor said:
"Now there's a boy, two minutes old.
For you to put in bed!"

"Now there's a boy!" and I was he
Of whom he spoke in praise.
When sons arrived that seemed to be
The doctor's favorite phrase.
He always had this pretty speech
To mothers all to say:
"Now there's a boy for you to teach
At evening time to pray!"

Oh, could the doctor look on me
The way I am today,
I wonder if as proud he'd be
"Now there's a boy!" to say.

DRIVER USES
AX TO SUBDU
NEGRO SAILOR

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A knife-wielding sailor terrorized a bus driver and his 28 other passengers yesterday on a 20-mile ride along the Pennsylvania Turnpike before the driver grabbed a fire ax and subdued him.

The sailor, Robert L. Jones, 23, of Washington, D. C., was held without charge today by police pending action by naval authorities.

Treated For Shock
The driver, W. E. Small, 50, of Hyattsville, Md., and four of his passengers required treatment for shock.

Officers gave this version:
A short time after the Washington-bound bus had left Pittsburgh, Jones went berserk, shouting that a woman passenger had told him he took her seat. He ran behind Small's seat, pulled a switchblade knife and pressed the point of it against the throat of the startled driver.

"Keep going," he roared at Small.

Driver Retaliates
Finally, Jones ordered Small to pull the bus into the driveway of a restaurant. When the bus stopped, Jones forced the passengers to leave. As they hastily complied, Small grabbed the fire ax, swung menacingly at Jones and cowed the sailor.

State police arrived soon afterwards and took Jones into custody.
Jones, a Negro, was reported to have been serving as a cook aboard the USS Wasp, an aircraft carrier.

BULGANIN ASKS
GENERAL DISARM
PLAN WITH IKE'S

FRASER, Colo. (AP)—Soviet Premier Bulganin is reported to have told President Eisenhower that if the Eisenhower plan for mutual aerial inspection and exchange of military blueprints is to be adopted it must be as part of a general disarmament plan.

The gist of Bulganin's personal message to Eisenhower came out last night and preparations were under way today to make public the text from the President's vacation headquarters.

It was learned in Washington that Bulganin also told Eisenhower the proposed disarmament program should provide for prompt renunciation and abolition of all atomic weapons.

A third chief point understood to have been made by Bulganin was that the program should apply to all military bases of both Russia and the United States, including those on foreign soil.

In advance of Eisenhower's scheduled departure from Fraser for the Denver White House, aides said the Kremlin leader's note might be released for publication by the day's end—or it might be held up until tomorrow.

Canners Invade Camp Hill Saturday; Littlestown To Play At Susquehannock

Adams County's two "unbeaten" scholastic football teams take to the road for contests Saturday afternoon, Biglerville playing at Camp Hill and Littlestown at Susquehannock.

The Biglerville Cannery gave every indication of developing into a first class outfit in turning back Shippensburg last week in their opener 14-6.

Coach Bill Coradetti was disturbed by the let-down of his squad in the second half after getting off to a 14-0 lead in the first two periods. Coradetti pointed out that last year's outfit blew several games after securing early leads. He is hopeful his present squad soon overcomes the habit of "coasting."

The Biglerville pilot said today his squad suffered only the usual number of minor injuries last week and all should be ready for full-time duty.

Nothing is known of the Camp Hill aggregation which will be making its current season debut. However, if past years may be taken as a criterion, a strong team may be anticipated for Camp Hill.

Littlestown-Susquehannock
Coach W. G. Gobrecht's Littlestown Thunderbolts will play their second straight Laurel Conference game in meeting Susquehannock.

Last week the Bolts, unbeaten last year when they held the co-championship with West York as the result of a 6-6 tie, eked out a 6-0 victory over West York in plying off the lid to the new season.

Susquehannock, coached by Bobby McCoy, former Gettysburg College star, has lost to Manheim Twp. Littlestown now has a streak of eight straight wins, seven from last year, and should make it nine unless over-confidence takes its toll.

In another conference game Saturday, Kennard Dale plays at Dallastown.

ADmits BOXING "DEAL" BEFORE STATE HEARING

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Fight manager Anthony Ferrante told the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission yesterday Wallace (Bud) Smith got his lightweight title match with Jimmy Carter last spring to make up for a championship fight promised Joey Giardello.

Both Smith and Giardello are managed by Ferrante and Carmen Graziano. Smith defeated Carter for the lightweight title in the match, held in Boston.

Ferrante appeared along with Graziano and Giardello at a hearing by the commission into charges the two managers associated with gamblers, racketeers and persons of "similar repute." The Commission is seeking to revoke the managers' licenses.

Attorney Is Surprised

Herbert S. Levin, deputy attorney general who conducted the cross-examination of the witnesses, expressed surprise when Ferrante revealed the deal for the Smith-Carter fight.

"You mean the commitment was not to the fighter, but to the manager?" he asked.

Ferrante said he and Graziano had been promised a championship match between Giardello and middleweight champion Carl (Bob) Olson, but that this fell through. "Giardello didn't get it so we got the match for Smith," he said.

One witness at the hearing, Carman Di Novi, a policeman, testified that Ferrante expressed unusual interest in a recent raid on a still found off the Black Horse Pike, about a mile south of Williams-town, N. J.

Giardello Testifies
Di Novi, who said he is a cousin of the manager, said Ferrante telephoned him last June 21 and demanded to know how authorities found out about the still.

Giardello was released from prison, where he is serving a term for assaulting a gas station attendant, to testify at the hearing. He told the commission he had borrowed money from Anthony Capronigro, also known as Tony Bananas, of Newark, N. J., to pay off a $1,000 bet he lost on the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1953. He said he met Capronigro through his managers.

Graziano earlier testified he knew Capronigro and that the latter is a second cousin. But he said he didn't know whether his cousin knew Frankie Carbo, alleged New York racketeer frequently called a powerful figure in the boxing game.

Emmett Zelenka, Tulane junior tackle from New Orleans, will handle most of the extra-point kicking for the Greenies this fall.

P-M Playoff Tilt At Union Bridge

The second of the best-of-three series for the playoff championship of the Pen-Mar Baseball League will be staged Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Union Bridge, Md.

Blue Ridge Summit, regular season titlist, dumped Union Bridge 13-2 in the opening game of the series last Sunday on the Summiteers' diamond.

Blue Ridge Summit, regular season titlist, dumped Union Bridge 13-2 in the opening game of the series last Sunday on the Summiteers' diamond.

Coach "Bud" Ecker has made many changes in his starting lineup as he felt that some of the boys were not putting out their best effort. In fact, six new faces may appear in the starting lineup this Saturday night.

Although beaten by Hummelstown 33 to 0, the statistics show that the game was much closer than the score indicates.

Enola has one of its best teams this year. Last week Enola defeated a highly-regarded New Cumberland team by a 21-6 score. The previous week New Cumberland lost to a strong Harrisburg Catholic team by only a 13-7 score, all of which indicates the Bubbler's are in for another rough evening.

The Bubbler's not only lost their game to Hummelstown, but also lost the services of Dave Cook, who was one of the top starters remaining from last year's eleven, was injured in the Hummelstown fray and has been lost for the season. A cast was placed on his knee on Monday.

The Bubbler's will be a decided underdog in this game but they are veterans to such ratings. They have risen to the occasion before and their followers are hoping that this year's team will do the same.

Turkeys may be hunted with bow and arrow in Arizona. The bow must have a pull of not less than 40 pounds and the arrow must have a broadhead of not less than seven-eighths of an inch in width.

Cornered after leading a dozen policemen on a two-mile chase through a residential section of Charlotte, N. C., this 750-pound steer charged to within a few feet of Officer Marvin Hullett. Hullett fired first and Officer D. A. Dellinger, not shown, finished it off. The steer escaped from a truck at a slaughterhouse. (AP Wirephoto)

Shippensburg 11 Here Tonight; Delone At Home

A pair of evenly matched football squads will clash here tonight when the Gettysburg High School Warriors will be host to Shippensburg. The kickoff will be at 8 o'clock.

Both teams are sorely in need of victories. The Warriors have lost two in as many outings while Shippensburg has lost its only engagement. On paper the squads appear at a standoff and a closely waged game is anticipated. Each has 11 lettermen.

In the only other county scholastic action tonight, Delone will entertain Scotland at McSherrystown. Alex Bell of the Squires reports he may have to use some reservists, depending on how several of his regulars have responded to treatment for minor injuries sustained last week. Scotland and Delone have each divided in two previous tilts.

Tonight also marks the opening of the South Penn Conference for six of the eight member schools. Games include Mechanicsburg at Hanover, Middletown at Carlisle and Hershey at Waynesboro.

WOMAN ADMITS ROBBERY HOAX

PORT DEPOSIT, Md. (AP)—State's Atty. J. Albert Roney Jr. said he would confer with state police today about the hoax which touched off an extensive two-day manhunt for a knife-wielding robber who didn't exist.

State police announced last night that Mrs. Rhea Josephine Ratledge, 35-year-old Port Deposit housewife and mother of two children, had admitted her story of being robbed of $2,020 was false.

Lt. Truman Moon of the Conowingo Barracks said Mrs. Ratledge broke down and admitted she made up the story when state police investigators confronted her with numerous discrepancies in her report.

There was no immediate disclosure of what happened to the $2,020 which Mrs. Ratledge said she had when she left a Port Deposit bank Wednesday after cashing a check for her husband, Jay W. Ratledge, a contractor. If state police knew where the money went, they were not saying.

Mrs. Ratledge returned home after admitting the hoax. Contacted at his home last night, Roney said he was unfamiliar with the case and could not say what action, if any, was planned by his office.

Marciano Will Fight Next June; Baker, Valdes Or -- ?

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP)—Heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano will be back in action next June. The possible victims include Cuba's Nino Valdes, hulking Bob Baker of Pittsburgh, Hurricane Tommy Jackson of New York or Floyd Patterson, the once-beaten Olympic champion of Brooklyn.

The invincible Brockton Blaster, having earned half a million dollars for his ninth-round knockout of Archie Moore in a spectacular brawl Wednesday night, has decided to go after a few more helpings.

It may not be as much as he earned with the colorful, cocky light heavyweight boss, but it figures to be plenty the way theater television is advancing by leaps and bounds.

Seeks Return Bout

Moore, who was knocked down four times and had his right eye shut, said he wants another crack at the rock-ribbed, steel-jawed Marciano but it is doubtful if the return will be made. Too many people remember what happened to Ezzard Charles in his second fight with Rocky after their thrilling first bout.

The 20-year-old Patterson doesn't seem a likely choice soon either. Now the No. 1 contender for Archie's 175-pound crown, the fast-punching youngster is being groomed as a heavyweight threat for 1957.

Baker may be the next choice. Winner of nine straight, including a decision over Valdes, the 23-year-old, 6-3, 210-pounder had been ticketed for a title shot before Moore's clamor and his wins over Valdes and Carl Bobo Olson got Archie his chance.

Valdes, another 6-3 husky, zoomed back into the picture by stopping England's Don Cockell in three rounds in London Sept. 13. It helped atone for two straight defeats by Moore and Bob Satterfield.

Jackson, a freestyle fighter with unlimited stamina, could barge his way into the spot. A nonstop puncher but lacking in power, the 23-year-old, 6-2, 195-pounder has won eight straight since he was stopped in two rounds by Valdes 14 months ago.

together Illinois and California, Minnesota and Washington, Purdue and College of Pacific, Washington State and Kansas, Wichita and Utah State, Indiana takes on Michigan State in a Big Ten contest.

Army, rated one of the East's leading independents, should have no trouble against Furman. Neither should Baylor against Villanova or Pennsylvania against VPI.

Columbia-Brown is the only Ivy League game but elsewhere in the East Penn State plays Boston University, Colgate meets Dartmouth, Yale takes on Connecticut, Princeton plays Rutgers in the sports' oldest rivalry and Cornell opens with Lehigh.

Race Drivers Will Share Title Fund

WILLIAMS GROVE, Pa. — Sharing the spotlight in a program to be staged in their honor tonight at Williams Grove Park and Speedway will be the drivers who amassed the most points in the 21 Jalopy races staged this season on Roy Richwine's half-mile oval.

The 50 top drivers in point standings will be awarded at a public program at 8 p.m. to be staged in the 2,200 seat Mt. Vernon Theater when a $3,500 championship fund is split among them.

In addition, Richwine will present the top 10 drivers with gold trophies, and there will also be an award for the "Rookie of the Year" to go to the most consistent and persistent driver of the year even though he may not be among the high point men.

JONES VS. CHRISTENSEN
CLEVELAND (AP)—Middleweight Ralph Tiger Jones, of Yonkers, N. Y., tangles with a Danish import, Chris Christensen, tonight at 9 p.m. (EST) in a 10-round televised go at Cleveland Arena.

Jones, who has fought in 12 television bouts during the past 15 months, beat Ernie Durando on a technical knockout in his last appearance June 17.

Welterweight and middleweight champion of Denmark, Christensen defeated Gene Porier of Niagara Falls in a TV bout three weeks ago.

COST MAY BAN TELECASTS OF SOME PRO TILTS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The National Football League may be forced to abandon its nationwide Saturday night football telecasts because "the government, through the Federal Communications Commission, is pricing us out of the Saturday market," NFL Commissioner Bert Bell says.

He said, the pro league's television program will be curtailed this year because of "excessive charges" for cables by the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. under FCC approved rates.

"We want to televise, regionally and nationally, and we have plenty of sponsors willing to go along with us," Bell continued. "However, when it comes to buying cables we're in trouble. It costs us four times as much to buy cables for telecasts as it does the networks because they buy it in great volume."

An AT&T spokesman in New York said Bell "is the unfortunate victim of circumstances," explaining that whereas the networks use television channels approximately 360 hours a month, the NFL would use it at most two and a half hours a week. The NFL channel would have to be put up and taken down each week, he said, while the channel leased to a big network would be permanent. He said a television channel can be used only for that purpose.

Bell said the cost of cables made the overall package price for long distance televising too high for most sponsors to absorb. The league's regional telecasts of some away games back to home cities will continue, Bell said.

"QUICK CHIEF" WINS BIG RACE AND $22,645.24

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)—Quick Chief, absent from the races since Aug. 18 because of lameness, today owned one of racing's most coveted trophies—the Little Brown Jug—along with a $24,645.24 payoff.

The black three-year-old son of Chief Abbeduto, owned by the Farmstead Acres of Brookville, N. Y., and driven by Billy Haughton of Massapequa, N. Y., won the tenth annual $66,608.83 "Jug" over the Delaware County Fairgrounds yesterday, defeating 16 of the nation's best sidewheelers.

Quick Chief was flown in last weekend, and he practically flew in the race, too, as he negotiated the twice-around in 2:00 1-5 and 2:00 2-5 to take the big prize.

Dottie's Pick, bay filly owned by J. E. and E. C. Armstrong of Brampton, Ontario, won her heat in the divided race in 2 minutes flat, a world mark for her sex and age, and then chased Quick Chief to the wire in the payoff heat which she lost by three lengths.

Quick Chief, the 1954 two-year-old pacer of the year and winter book favorite, boosted his 1955 winnings to $89,603 and his two-year take to $115,770.

Dottie's Pick, second in the overall picture, won $13,987 to almost match her $14,083 picked up in 18 previous starts this season.

HAAS, WALL TOP GOLF TOURNEY

NEWTON, Mass. (AP)—Fred Haas Jr. and Art Wall Jr., a couple of pro golfers who started playing the game under the sharp eyes of their dads, led the way into the second round of the $43,000 sponsors tournament today at the Charles River Country Club.

The 39-year-old Haas and the 31-year-old Wall could do little wrong yesterday as they mastered the wind-swept 6,431-yard Charles River Course in five under par 67s to share an opening round lead in the 72-hole competition which runs through Sunday.

Wall, a Duke University graduate playing out of Pocono Manor, Pa., relied chiefly on his putter in registering 34 on the first nine and 33 on the back nine. Considered pro golf's most accurate driver, Wall turned to his putter for an eagle on the seventh and four birdies.

Wall called his play "definitely one of my better rounds" and said he "really had my putter working."

Jackie Burke, a Texan representing Klamath Lake, N. Y., trailed the top pair with a 69. Six players, including Dr. Cary Middlecoff and PGA champion Doug Ford, were deadlocked with 70s. Arnold Palmer, Latrobe, Pa., had a 71. Mike Souchak, Berwyn, Pa., shot a 72.

Godfrey denied to newsmen that he flew too close to the airliner. He said he merely "waggled" his wings in a greeting and that there was no danger of a collision.

NEW ATTITUDE STRESSED AT MEDIC MEETING

PITTSBURGH (P) — An atomic bomb attack may force physicians to change their whole philosophy about treatment of casualties, a Philadelphia doctor says.

Dr. William T. Flitts Jr., speaking Tuesday at the 105th annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Medical Society, said:

"In the event of civilian atomic disaster, it may be necessary for the practicing surgeon to change his entire philosophy of handling casualties. Up to now practicing surgeons have been trained essentially to take care of the most seriously wounded first. In an atomic disaster he must learn quickly to put aside those who are beyond hope and concentrate on those who can be most benefited by the personnel and supplies available."

Describes System

Lt. Col. Kyrle E. Van Buskirk of the Army Medical Corps, Washington, described a system to be used in treating casualties of an atomic bomb attack. He said:

"In the center of the (bomb) area would be complete destruction. In a surrounding area, hopelessly and critically injured. In the next perimeter, in general, less severely injured. Any effective aid, medical or otherwise, must be brought from outside this area."

"There will be quite a lapse of time before organized help can arrive and set up on the perimeter of the disaster area. More time will be required to clear the roads so that casualties may be evacuated. During this period the survivors in the disaster area will be forced to rely on whatever resources are available to them. . . . To properly accomplish this it is imperative that all persons be taught first aid and how to practice it."

Open "Sorting Stations"

Van Buskirk said "sorting stations" would have to be set up where the hopelessly wounded can be sorted from the critically in-

Has Head Caught In "L" Turnstile

CHICAGO (P) — The next time Philip Palmer wants to ride the "L" he'll pay his fare at the entrance.

Philip, 12, tried to climb over a turnstile at an exit of an elevated railroad station and caught his head in a narrow space near the top. He shouted, and six companions awaiting their turn shouted. Someone called police, and the police called the firemen. Under the supervision of L. Leon Abrahamson, the crowd freed Philip's head by sawing off an iron bar with a hacksaw. He was unharmed.

TV Commercial Teach Tot To Read

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (P) — Kim Story, 2, doesn't regard the TV commercials as a nuisance. They taught him to read.

His father, police officer Frank Story, says Kim started out with such tough ones as hexachlorophene and chlorophyll. After that the little ones come easily.

Kim now reads almost anything in off moments he amuses himself by identifying various makes of automobiles.

The youngster still checks the commercials but ignores the programs.

BILLINGS, Mont. (P) — It was only a plaster of paris model of a 38 caliber revolver, but Patrolman Ollie Caudill recognized it as one stolen from a Billings home earlier in the day.

He picked up the boy who was brandishing the imitation gun at a ball park. The boy admitted the theft.

He was then taken to the police station and those less seriously hurt. Dr. Robert L. Schaeffer of Allentown was instead Tuesday night as the society's 106th president.

The society's Benjamin Rush awards were presented to Stanley F. Fink, principal of the Southwest Junior High School, Reading and to the Rotary Club of Allentown.

Fink won the award for his work in collecting money for cerebral palsy victims. The Allentown Rotary was cited for its leadership in a number of health programs.

Stamp News

A royal marriage is always a cause for celebration. In addition to the festivities and pomp, the celebrating nation usually issues a special stamp or two for the occasion.

And that's what Jordan has done. It has issued two stamps honoring the marriage of Prince King Hussein to his pretty cousin, Princess Dina Abdul Hamid.

The 15 fill blue and the 100 fill red brown bear profile vignettes of the royal couple. Beneath the portraits is the date, April 19, 1955.

King Hussein is 19 and his new bride is 26.

Turkey has issued four stamps of the same design for its Ankara Urban Congress, reports the New York Stamp Co. The stamps are diamond shaped. The 1 lire is dark violet, 50 k brown-olive, 20 k green-blue and 15 k dark grey.

GREAT BEND, Kans. (P) — Timid as a lamb.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Copeland don't believe that time-worn expression any more. On a recent visit to the cemetery at Harper, Kan., they saw a cottontail run and jump into battle with a big snake that had caught a baby rabbit.

The brown rabbit kicked with its hind legs, seven times was tipped head over heels, once was trapped with the snake coiled around its body. But the baby rabbit escaped in the excitement — and so did the cottontail, after kicking itself free and returning to the attack.

Strings Serve As Good Scarecrow

WINNSBORO, La. (P) — Hub Dear believes crows are superstitious. That, says Dear, makes them a cinch to keep out of watermelon patches. Just drive stakes at intervals through the patch and stretch string from stake to stake.

"Thinking the string is some kind of trap, he will not light in the patch where the string is placed," said Dear. "The crows is a smart bird but he is also very superstitious."

Dear discovered this version of the tradition scarecrow in 1917 and has used it since.

LOANS FOR TEENS

CHICAGO (P) — Teen-age loan seekers are encouraged to borrow from the First Commercial Bank since it established its "Teen-Age Loan Fund."

Harold H. Stout, president of the bank, said no co-signers or guarantors of any kind are required and only the integrity of teen agers is necessary for a loan.

Three teen-agers are members of the fund's administrative board.

SAYS DEALINGS WITH E. GERMANY "UNFRIENDLY"

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer declared Thursday that West Germany would regard it as "an unfriendly act" if any third nation established diplomatic relations with Communist East Germany.

Opening Bundestag debate on his agreement to open such formal relations with East Germany's sponsor, the Soviet Union, Adenauer stressed his government's adamant refusal to acknowledge the legitimacy of the East German regime. The regime was given sovereignty by the Russians in negotiations in Moscow this week.

Adenauer declared the East regime had the support of no more than 10 per cent of the 18 million East Germans. Therefore, he added, it had no right to speak for Germany. Slowly and firmly, Adenauer added:

House Applauds Announcement
"If a third state were to establish diplomatic relations with the East German regime we would regard it as an unfriendly act."

The House applauded.

The East German government is recognized only by the Soviet Union and its satellites.

Adenauer was reporting to Parliament on his negotiations with Russian leaders in Moscow which led to an agreement to establish diplomatic relations between Bonn and Moscow. The government is asking Parliament to approve this agreement. An overwhelming favorable vote is certain.

Adenauer explained the NATO nations had already acknowledged that only the Bonn government was entitled to speak on behalf of all Germany. Any recognition of the East regime would only deepen the division of Germany, Adenauer asserted.

He said the Russian agreement with Premier Otto Grotewohl this week that his Communist East government would control traffic to Berlin was a violation of the 1949 four-power agreement ending the Berlin blockade.

Adenauer said he had asked the Western powers to study this situation "and take the necessary steps."

EXPECT 600 PRISONERS

HANNOVER, Germany (AP)—Six hundred German war prisoners are expected to return to Germany from Russia this weekend, welfare officials disclosed here today.

They are the first of 9,625 prisoners which Premier Nikolai Bulganin promised the West and East German governments to release.

Some of the returnees may stop in East Germany at former homes. Most, however, are expected to continue to West Germany.

FATHER OF THREE KILLED

MILROY, Pa. (AP)—A father of three children was killed Wednesday night when caught under a runaway tractor on his farm four miles east of this Mifflin County community.

The victim was Arthur Robert Stimley, 66, of Milroy R. 1. His head was crushed under the vehicle when it toppled over on him.

Forced To Subdue Prisoner In Court

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Court officers and police subdued a defendant who tried to vault the bar rail facing Judge Charles L. Guerin yesterday after the latter refused a plea to send the man to county prison.

Nathaniel Stratton, 29, sentenced to 12-36 months in Eastern State Penitentiary on a robbery conviction, complained to Guerin:

"Give me a break. Everytime I come to court, I go to jail." He asked that he be allowed to serve his time in the county prison and when the judge refused, Stratton had to be subdued and removed from the City Hall Quarter Sessions Court room.

INDICT BANK PRESIDENT

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Roscoe D. Coon, horse-loving vice president and cashier of a desert town bank that closed July 25, has been indicted on 25 counts of embezzlement, misapplication of funds and false entries.

"This is the most fantastic embezzlement case which has ever come before local authorities," said U.S. Atty. Laughlin E. Waters. "Apparently the shortages go back to 1953, and we have been unable to find evidence that any other person was involved."

Federal authorities said the Joshua Monument National Bank—the only one in the desert community of Twentynine Palms—closed after an audit showed a shortage of $678,000.

Waters said Coon, who owns at suburban Altadena and Twentynine Palms, was arrested at the Del Mar race track where he had a racing stable valued at about $150,000.

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corp., which insured the bank's deposits, has obtained an injunction preventing Coon from disposing of any of his assets.

TROOPS REFUSE TO QUIT ZONES

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—Israeli troops clung Thursday to a section of the Negev Desert demilitarized zone, refusing to leave until Egyptians quit two posts they allegedly hold in the area. Egypt denied it holds the posts.

Canadian Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, United Nations truce supervisors' chief in Palestine, reported to U.N. headquarters that 70 Israeli troops had taken up positions yesterday in the Nizana sector of the demilitarized zone, 50 miles due south of Egyptian-held Gaza.

Burns lodged a strong protest with the Israeli Foreign Ministry. A spokesman for the Israeli Foreign Ministry said in Jerusalem that the action was taken because of the "continued presence of two Egyptian military outposts in this territory inside 'Israel' and because the Egyptians had demolished border markers Israel had put up in the area."

Col. Salah Gohar, Egypt's director of Palestine affairs, disputed Israel's claim to the territory and the Jewish nation's right to erect border markers. He also denied that Egyptians had pulled down the 21 white concrete pillars.

AUTOPSY SHOWS NO FOUL PLAY

Convinced by the results of an autopsy that no foul play was involved, Dr. S. D. Shull, Franklin County coroner, Wednesday issued a certificate of death by natural causes in the case of John Andrew Lawrence, 58, Chambersburg. Dr. Shull said there will be no inquest.

The autopsy, performed Tuesday afternoon by Dr. William E. B. Hall, resident pathologist at the Chambersburg Hospital, showed that Lawrence's death on Monday evening was the result of coronary thrombosis and hardening of the arteries, the coroner reported.

John T. Lawrence, R. 3, is a son of the deceased.

The law provides that sponsors in the U. S. must provide jobs and housing for the refugees. The Pennsylvania sponsors include:

SHERIFF LOSES JAIL TUSSELE

Sheriff Clyde E. Fisher of Cumberland County is nursing a bruised upper lip today, suffered Tuesday night when he subdued a prisoner in the Cumberland County Prison, who suddenly went berserk in cell at Carlisle who suddenly went berserk in cell.

Fisher said the prisoner, Robert Gardner, 24, York Springs R. 2, was treated earlier in the day by Dr. L. M. Whitcomb after he had told a prison official he "wanted to be locked up before he hit someone."

When a "runner" stepped by Gardner's cell in the evening to extinguish the lights, Gardner, Fisher said, ripped a radiator from his cell and tossed it in the direction of the runner.

Fisher said he went into the cell to pacify Gardner and was slugged by the prisoner before he could be quieted.

The sheriff said Gardner was sentenced to prison when found guilty of operating a vehicle after his license was suspended, malicious mischief, resisting arrest, aggravated assault and battery and non-support.

RECORD OUTPUT WAS CAUSE OF PRICE DECLINE

By OVID A. MARTIN
WASHINGTON (AP)—Agriculture Department economists predicted today that the general level of farm prices—a big political issue—will decline little if any more on this year's crops.

Farm prices now average about 6 per cent below a year ago. Democratic leaders have sharply criticized the Eisenhower administration for the price setbacks, saying present farm programs are inadequate.

In a monthly report on the demand and supply situation for farm products, the department's marketing service said that seasonal price declines may occur for some commodities. But it said, "Much of the general price adjustment to increased supplies this season have already taken place."

Price drops this year, the report added, largely reflect market reactions to prospects of a record output of agricultural goods.

In a separate report yesterday, the Federal Reserve Board's monthly bulletin blamed the declines on big crops in recent years, overhanging surpluses owned by the government and on the cut-back in federal price support rates for this season's grain harvest.

Farm Position Strong
But despite a decrease in farm income "the general financial position of farmers remains relatively strong," the report added.

The two reports were made public as the National Agricultural Advisory Commission prepared to wind up a two-day conference today on what steps, if any, it believes the administration should take to bolster farm income.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson has asked the 18-member bipartisan commission, appointed by President Eisenhower in 1953, for its ideas on what the government might do to put more money into farmers' pockets during the period of declining prices and downward adjustments in production from the high postwar levels.

After yesterday's closed commission meeting, a Benson aide said it appeared necessary to "buy time" with some temporary farm assistance program until the administration's new flexible price price support system has taken hold.

HEADS IKE DINNER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republicans Thursday picked Frederick C. Crawford, Cleveland industrialist, as national chairman of the Salute to Eisenhower dinners to be held in more than 100 cities next Jan. 20, third anniversary of the inauguration of President Eisenhower. They will start the Republican party's fund-raising efforts for the 1956 campaign.

SLAIN HEIRESS' MOTHER CANNOT BE QUESTIONED

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A psychiatrist said last night Mrs. Gertrude Silver is "still incompetent to testify" at her hearing on charges of being an accessory in the abortion death of her daughter, Mrs. Doris Silver Ostreicher.

Dr. A. M. Ornstein, Mrs. Silver's own neuropsychiatrist, made the statement to newsmen after he had examined her along with Dr. Vincent Lathbury, a psychiatrist representing the commonwealth.

"Dr. Lathbury and I... both conducted the examination" and were in complete accord," said Ornstein. He said Lathbury would make his report to Dist. Atty. Samuel Dash.

Cannot Testify
The examination took place in Philadelphia Psychiatric Hospital, where Mrs. Silver has been confined since it was ruled at her arraignment hearing that she was not mentally fit to testify and that she did not understand the nature of the proceedings against her.

Mrs. Silver is charged also with conspiring with Mr. and Mrs. Milton Schwartz to perform the abortion on the 22-year-old bride of two months, Mrs. Ostreicher died in the Schwartzes' North Philadelphia apartment Aug. 24 while there with her mother.

The Schwartzes, charged with performing the fatal abortion attempt, are being held for grand jury action.

Ornstein, who said he had been treating Mrs. Silver every day this week, asserted that she is no longer the "hysterical, agitated and confused person" she was at the time of her arraignment.

Nevertheless, said Ornstein, she is still not able to testify and "she refuses to believe Doris is dead."

Ornstein had termed her condition "bereavement shock."

QUEEN OF IRAN DELIGHTED WITH BEAN DISH ON FLORIDA VISIT

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Go recipe hunting in Florida and you come up with a dish originated by an American homemaker and enjoyed by the Queen of Iran. Stopping for a barbecue supper at the Clearwater Lake cottage of John A. Snively Jr. and his wife May, we snopped into royal eating habits.

The day of our visit, great sides of beef and pork—stashed with a pungent barbecue sauce of John Snively's devising—gave off irresistible flavors as they roasted to a turn in a shallow outdoor barbecue pit. We could hardly wait until the meat was carved and offered to us. Brunswick Stew came on, hearty and fiery. But the dish we fell madly in love with was a simple casserole of green beans with an intriguing topping.

As May Snively watched us take second and third helpings of her casserole, she told us that she and her husband had entertained Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi and Queen Soraya of Iran at a similar barbecue supper during their recent American visit. The Queen also had eaten the green bean dish with gusto.

The Snivelys went all out for the Iranian rulers. May and her mother-in-law spent the day supervising the cooking, setting tables for the dozens of guests expected for the party and arranging flower centerpieces and place cards. Shortly before supper, the chief of protocol for the royal visitors arrived and surveyed the two large cottage living rooms set with tables. He decided that one of the rooms would have to be cleared of all tables except one, and that the Shah and the Queen would dine there alone.

Dined Alone
The thoroughly American and unpretentious hosts weren't prepared for this—but they were good sports. When the Shah and Queen Soraya arrived they were ushered into the room with the solitary table and put into the hands of Spencer, the genial helper who has been with the Snivelys family for years.

"But," May Snively told with eyes twinkling, "Spencer is not a polished butler!"

Each time Spencer offered Queen Soraya a dish, she looked him in the eye, asked him what was in it and considered carefully before she helped herself. Pork, beef and chicken were easy for Spencer. But when it came to the special vegetable casserole that was being served with the meat, he lost his patience. "Listen lady," he said. "It's just beans and stuff."

The Queen dug in.
Back in our New York kitchen, we tried duplicating "Beans and Stuff." Our tasters were entranced, begged for the recipe. Here it is:

Beans And Stuff
Ingredients: 1 pound snap beans, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup boiling water, 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup, 1/4 teaspoon celery salt, 1/2 teaspoon soy sauce, pepper, 1 cup (one-half of a 3 1/2-ounce can) French-fried onions, paprika (if desired).

Method: Cut tips from beans; scrub in cold water; drain. Cut each bean in half both crosswise and lengthwise. Add beans and salt to boiling water in a 2-quart saucepan, bring water to a boil again. Cover and cook rapidly until tender but still crisp—about 8 minutes; lift

Camera News

The Associated Press
A revolutionary advance in photography will shortly be available to the public. To the magic of picture-in-a-minute photography, a new miracle will be possible. The ability to produce a permanent film negative along with the print. It will be made possible when a new, fast, fine-quality panchromatic film, whose negative emulsion is coated on an acetate film base, is introduced in the very near future.

Credit for the research and development of the new film goes to the Polaroid Corp. Instinctively we visualize anonymous scientists in an impressive laboratory working meticulously for years.

But the immediate discoverer of a simple technique whereby, for the first time, a permanent negative can be produced along with a quick print, was an individual photo enthusiast John Wolbarst, managing editor of Modern Photography magazine, in testing the new Polaroid Professional Pan film, had a logical brainstorm.

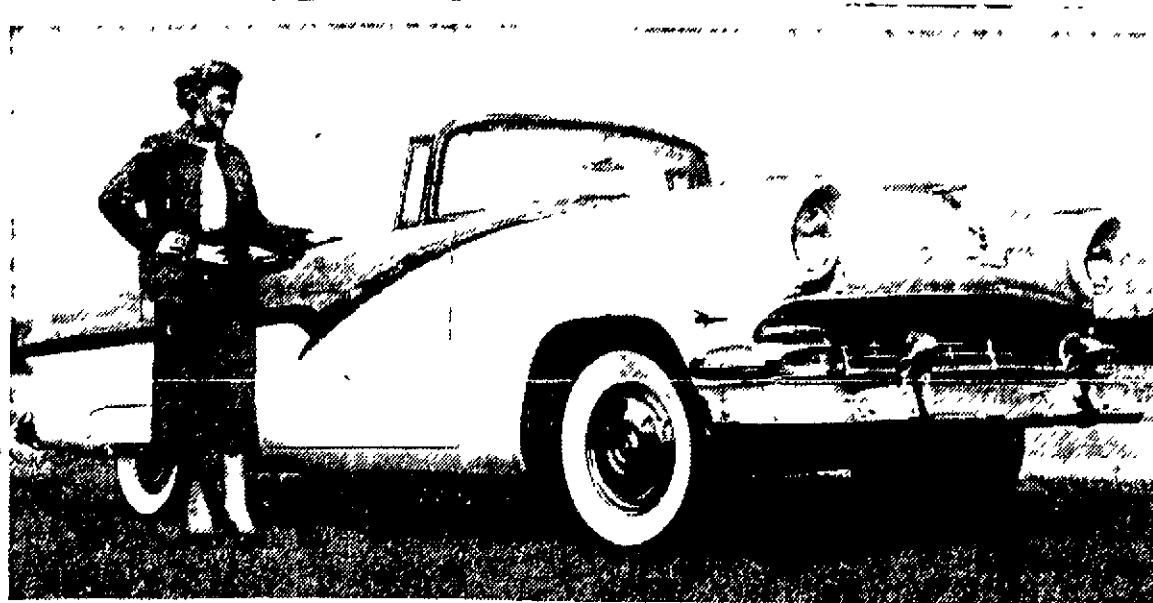

What would happen if he tried to fix the new negative after he had taken a picture? He experimented.

Worked In Dark
He didn't want it to be spoiled by light, which is the usual procedure, so he worked in a completely dark room. The film had a paper edging, so it had to be removed carefully. The film had a coating of developing jelly so he removed it by immersing in a pan of water and swabbing it off gently, with his fingers. Then he put it in fresh fixer. When he put on the light after 20 seconds, the film was reacting like normal film. In a couple of minutes it was completely clear. Two more minutes for complete fixation, then 20 minutes of careful washing, a dunk in Photo-Flo and the film was hung to dry.

That film turned out to be a normal negative, capable of producing prints and enlargements in the usual manner. It wasn't a happy single accident because Wolbarst tried it again and again with the same successful results. It was an important discovery which became the basis for a ten page review and report on the past, present and new frontiers of the Polaroid camera.

Sent In Idea
"At that," he told me, "I think I surprised the Polaroid people when I sent my story for Dr. Land, the inventor of the camera, to check the facts. They may have had some similar process up their sleeves. . . I don't know. However, the curtain is now open on a new world in photography with further improvements and new adaptations certain to follow."

For the present, Polaroid is cover several times so beans will retain their green color. Drain, reserving 1/3 cup cooking liquid; if there is not enough cooking liquid add water to make required amount. Turn condensed and luted cream of mushroom soup into a 1 1/2-quart casserole. Stir 1/3 cup reserved liquid, celery salt, soy sauce, and pepper to taste into soup. Fold in drained beans. (Wipe down inner sides of casserole). Arrange French-fried onions over top. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven until very hot and onion rings are crisp and brown — 20 to 30 minutes. Sprinkle with paprika if desired. Makes six servings.

ONE OF 17 MODELS—Advanced front end and side styling of the new 1956 Ford is emphasized in this view of the Sunliner convertible, one of 17 new body styles which Ford dealers will place on display next Friday, September 23. The grille has been widened and lengthened, and parking lamps have been worked into chrome housings which extend around the sides of the fenders. A new-style hood ornament is recessed above the special Fairlane Ford crest. On the fender is the new ornament indicating "Thunderbird power", which is standard in Fairlane models with the Y-8 engine.

about to put on the market new panchromatic high speed films with marked improvement in quality. One will have a daylight exposure rating of ASA 200 while another is ASA 400. Both these films are for general amateur use and the negative emulsion is coated on a paper base, the same as the film now in use.

These will be followed by the remarkable film which can produce permanent negatives. It also has an ASA rating of 200 but its negative emulsion is coated on an acetate film base.

This film produces its positive print in only 45 seconds. If it is overdeveloped, an unusual effect is noticed. All the dark areas form a golden, mirror-like image. When used deliberately, novel and intriguing results can be produced. For straight results, critical exposure and exact development are essential.

For Average Fan
I watched Wolbarst demonstrate his technique with this Polaroid Professional Pan film. It is a method any average camera fan can undertake successfully when the new film becomes available. Its disadvantage is that in order to make a permanent negative, the photographer must improvise or work in a darkroom after each exposure. This may be all right when taking pictures in a home or professional studio but it's an extreme handicap when shooting a batch of pictures outdoors.

To help solve this problem, perhaps we stumbled on something further. I saw one of the discarded negatives, which we had decided not to save, in the waste basket. It had been exposed to the ordinary room light for some moments. What would happen if we fixed it at this stage? Wolbarst said, "Let's try it."

We went through the same process under an amber safe light from then on.

And do you know that, under those conditions which would have turned a normal negative completely black, we salvaged the negative and were able to make a passable enlargement.

Take it from there, fans. You, too, can be an experimenter and a discoverer, and it's fun besides.

Tagging Celebrant Is Family Tradition

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurrying home to celebrate his 14th wedding anniversary Harry Gaber got a ticket for speeding. Gaber told the policeman it was his first ticket in 13 years, the other one having been given to him when he was hustling to celebrate his first wedding anniversary.

"And a funny thing," Gaber said, looking at his summons. "The officer who stopped me then was named Campbell, too."

"Yes," said Patrolman C. E. Campbell Jr., "that was my father."

TRUCK ON RAMPAGE

ADRIAN, Mich. (AP) — Kenneth Deermeyer was ready to load a truck when he found it gone.

It had rolled out of the garage and traveled 200 feet across the street, jumped a curb, smashed a fence, tore up two trees, plunged over a bank and stopped, resting against a concrete abutment inches from the River Raisin.

NO BEER HERE

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP) — Officers caught two men in a house whose owner was out of town. The men told Magistrate O. L. Thompson they thought they were re-entering a beer parlor they had visited earlier in the evening.

Thompson was not impressed. The house was the residence of the Rev. Paul M. Pridgen, Baptist minister known as a dedicated prohibitionist.

Carol Greene To Reside In Canada

VANCOUVER (AP) — Carol Lucy Greene, daughter of novelist Graham Greene, is coming to British Columbia to become a rancher somewhere in Western Canada.

Her visit will last a month during which she will look over ranch land in the Alberta foothills and in B.C.

"I chose Canada because it is a young country and I like the wide open spaces," she said.

Fears Cars, Rides Motorcycle At 80

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — O. W. Wilkinson is 80 and wants no part of automobiles. "I don't feel safe," he says.

When he wants to get out, he rides his motorcycle — just as he has been doing for 53 years. The only accident he's had was when he was 77. A car hit him but he turned his wheel so he was only "knocked across the street."

"Only trouble was," he explained, "another car was coming the other way and knocked me against a fence, broke my nose, cracked three ribs and split my head open. But I got right back on my motor when I got out of the hospital."

TRUCK TURNS WHITE
JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A collision shattered 12 gallons of bleach in Everett G. Lamm's pickup truck. He was unhurt but the inside of the truck turned white.

"This is the most comfortable seat in town—the car that isn't kept in top mechanical condition!"

RENEWED ALLEGIANCE TO THE LAW

Ezekiel 20:19-20;

Nehemiah 9:1-3; 10:32, 35, 37, 39

Key Verse: I the Lord am your God; walk in my statutes, and be careful to observe my ordinances. Ezekiel 20:19.

Devotion of the Jews to their religious heritage was born anew in captivity. Under the capable leadership of Ezekiel, prophet of the exile, many who had never been intent on instruction began to study the law, the prophecies, and the history of their nation. This study brought the conviction that they had not been faithful followers of the law of God and as a consequence they had suffered reverses. It helped prepare the people for the work of Ezra and Nehemiah.

Ezra came back with a group of refugees to a different Israel — an Israel with a mixed population of people from both Babylonian migrations plus those who had been left behind in Jerusalem. When the law was read, the people wept openly because their ways of living had so far departed from what the law required. But Ezra led them back to a new allegiance to the law and saw that they laid upon themselves obligations.

Ezra knew that the people were impressed with the initial reading of the law, so he continued reading to all those who were interested and set a fast for the twenty-fourth of the month. Preparations for his great and important service were made. This is briefly what occurred: "And they stood up in their place and read from the book of the law of the Lord their God for a fourth of the day; for another fourth of it they made confession and worshipped the Lord their God." The scribe Ezra may be compared to the modern director of religious instruction who plans the courses of Bible and teaches the spiritual meaning of its sacred pages. Men, women, and children were gathered for those mass instruction periods.

A new resurgence of loyalty to God and to His law took hold on the people and they made a covenant with Him and one another. Provision for regular offerings are recorded in Nehemiah 10:32, 35, 37, 39, by which they pledged themselves to give a third part of the shekel, the first fruits of their ground and trees — all those required by law. To Ezra worship and religious instruction must go hand in hand.

It may be a bit difficult for us to understand the ceremonial law as laid down by Moses, but each law had a spiritual meaning. These laws were binding but also made men free. If they kept God's ordinances, they were conscience-free and not enslaved by sin and unrighteousness. The moral law of God can never be outmoded. It was established to meet man's needs and "constant shall remain." These laws were a blueprint for living; they told the Jews what they must do to obey God.

The law was acceptable to those who loved God. "Blessed are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the Lord!" (Psalm 119:1, RSV). And so Nehemiah proceeded to outline basic requirements: Reading the laws of Moses, confessing their sins, and developing a profound respect for the Sabbath.

These prophets of old taught, preached, and lived with God's chosen people in the midst of trials and national crises. Their records show that God remains Ruler of all and that His hand is always at the helm — guiding, directing, blessing. His favored people may have been the suffering servant but through them He has carried out His eternal purposes. A plan that seemed clouded and dim in Old Testament days became crystal clear when Christ came to save the world. Christ fulfilled the law and gave us the pattern for Christian living.

THE EVIDENCE OF THINGS NOT SEEN

How do you know the sun is shining when the world is steeped in shadow? How can you believe that day is at hand when night seems all around? • The fringe of gold on the darkest clouds, the rays of light streaming over the distant horizon, the shimmering paths of silver across the shadowy waters . . . these are the evidence of what we cannot see . . . the promise of dawning day. • Well did the Biblical writer describe faith as "the evidence of things not seen." For in man's darkest hour faith is his assurance that God is near . . . that God cares. • Religious faith is no panacea to drive away dark clouds. The somber clouds as well as the blue skies belong to life. But faith is man's pathway of promise, beckoning across the dark waters to the bright horizon. • We all need that pathway of promise. Adults need it to meet and overcome the many disturbances of life. Children need it to grow into courageous, moral men and women. • The Church continually teaches faith in God. And regular worship deepens faith. Attend the church of your choice . . . attend it regularly.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

NEW SANDWICH IDEAS BRIGHTEN UP YOUR PARTY REFRESHMENTS

By Cecily Brownstone, Associated Press Food Editor

A shower for a bride-to-be coming up? Then here's a suggestion that may answer that inevitable question, "What to serve?"

Double-decker sandwiches can be prepared ahead and taste good with tea or coffee. They look pretty, too, frosted with glimmering cream cheese and a heart-shaped garnish of fresh red tomato.

And here's an added feature: Guests can take their choice of these double-deckers because there are three varieties. Some of your friends lean toward ham and cheese? Some like eggs, seafood, avocado? These combinations are all here.

Each of these sandwiches is made with three slices of bread — two of white, one of whole-wheat. Good flavor and eye-appeal this way, especially if the bread is thinly sliced and fresh.

For dessert after these sandwiches, serve a big compote of fresh strawberries and pineapple with fancy little frosted cakes and crisp cookies. Then fill up the tea and coffee cups again.

Sweetheart Double-Deckers

Ingredients: 24 slices enriched white bread, 12 slices whole-wheat bread, 2 1/2 cups butter or margarine (soft), 2 tablespoons mayonnaise or mayonnaise-type salad dressing, 1 1/2 cups Swiss Miss filling, four slices boiled ham, 2 1/2 cups egg-crabmeat filling, 2 1/2 cups avocado-shrimp filling, 2 (8 ounces each) packages cream cheese, 1 3 cup milk, two tomatoes. Method: Make three kinds of sandwiches. First buttering one side of each slice of bread.

For first variety, cover buttered sides of 4 slices of white bread with Swiss Miss filling, using 3 tablespoons for each slice. Top with 4 slices of whole-wheat bread, buttered side down. Spread each slice of whole-wheat bread with mayonnaise before arranging slices of boiled ham as second filling. Complete with 4 slices of white bread, buttered side down.

For second variety, cover buttered side of 4 slices of white bread with egg-crabmeat filling, using 3 tablespoons for each slice. Complete with 4 slices of whole-wheat bread, buttered side down. Spread whole-wheat bread with Swiss Miss filling, using 3 tablespoons for each slice. Complete with 4 slices of white bread, buttered side down.

For third variety, cover buttered sides of 4 slices of white bread with avocado-shrimp filling, using 3 tablespoons for each slice. Complete with 4 slices of whole-wheat bread, buttered side down. Spread whole-wheat bread with Swiss Miss filling, using 3 tablespoons for each slice. Complete with 4 slices of white bread, buttered side down.

Blend cream cheese with milk and spread over top of each double-decker. Turn off crusts. Cut each double-decker in half, crosswise. To garnish, divide each tomato into 12 wedges; place 2 wedges together, skin side out, to form heart. Makes 12 servings.

Swiss Miss Filling

Ingredients: 2 cups (lightly packed) grated Swiss cheese, 1/4 cup chopped ripe olives, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 1/4 cup mayonnaise or mayonnaise-type salad dressing.

Method: Mix cheese, olives, mustard and mayonnaise. Makes 1 1/2 cups.

Egg-Crabmeat Filling

Ingredients: 2 hard-cooked eggs (chopped), 1 3 cup flaked crabmeat, 1/4 teaspoon celery salt, 1

Camera News

By IRVING DESFOR, The Associated Press

Camera motion is probably Public Enemy No. 1. It is due to carelessness in handling and holding a camera and jabbing the finger on the button at the instant of shooting. The remedy is simple: make a conscious effort to hold the camera steady and apply a slow, gentle pressure to press the release button. Do not hold the camera in your hands for speeds slower than 1-25th of a second. Steady it against a wall, tree trunk, etc., or rest it on a fence, bench, table or other handy solid object.

Bad backgrounds ruin a lot of pictures. Our eyes and our minds ordinarily see only the person or group we are shooting while the background, because of our three-dimensional vision, is literally out of the picture. In a two-dimensional plane, however, it pops up and assumes major — and too often, unwelcome — importance. The remedy? Examine the background critically first. Often a slight change in shooting angle will make a vast improvement.

Make it a habit to check the mechanical adjustments on your camera for each shot: the focus, to prevent fuzzy pictures; the shooting speed and lens opening to avoid over or underexposures. Often, in shooting a series on one occasion, there'll be a change in distance or in light conditions, but the tendency is to keep pressing the button automatically at the same settings.

Accuracy Needed

Extreme close-ups require greater accuracy and more attention than other pictures. In focusing, there is less leeway and even a slight error will stand out. They are not meant for fixed-focus cameras except when using special portrait attachments which call for accurate measurements. Closer than six feet, a viewfinder's angle is different from the lens' view so allowances must be made or heads will be chopped down.

Double exposures are a wasteful menace but can be banished. All it requires is a fixed habit of turning the film immediately after snapping a picture. However, if you're ever in doubt, don't take any chances — turn it again. It's better to waste one film than to ruin two pictures.

Tilting the camera is another common fault. Some do it unconsciously and others angle the camera deliberately, usually to get a tall building all in. While it can be done effectively, the usual result is a slight case of violent perspective and a sea-sick picture. It's better to back off more and keep the lines vertical and horizontal.

tablespoon mayonnaise or mayonnaise-type salad dressing, 1/4 teaspoon lemon juice.

Method: Mix eggs, crabmeat, celery salt, mayonnaise and lemon juice. Makes 3/4 cup.

Egg-Cheese Filling

Ingredients: 2 large or 3 small hard-cooked eggs (chopped), 1/4 cup cream-style cottage cheese, 1/4 teaspoon minced onion, 1 teaspoon minced green pepper, 1/4 teaspoon salt, paprika, celery seed, pepper.

Method: Mix egg, cottage cheese, onion, green pepper, salt, and dashes of paprika, celery seed and pepper. Makes 3/4 cup.

Avocado-Shrimp Filling

Ingredients: 1/4 cup minced avocado, 1/4 cup mayonnaise or mayonnaise-type salad dressing, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1/2 cup cleaned cooked shrimp (chopped).

Method: Mix avocado, mayonnaise, lemon juice and shrimp. Makes 3/4 cup.

FORMULAS FOR SKEWERED BEEF ARE UNVEILED

By Cecily Brownstone, Associated Press Food Editor

Skewer cookery is catching on. When we were traveling around the country recently, young married folk told us they use skewers for the meat — and recipe is a top secret. On these occasions, we never try to pry. We taste a few times, ponder, taste again. Sometimes we hazard a guess as to what has gone into the saucing. If we're right, the man of the house is a good sport; he nods approval. If we're wrong, he can't help correcting us — and the secret's out.

After all the guessing games we've discovered marinades for skewered beef usually have a base of salad oil and vinegar or lemon juice. Seasonings are likely to be a couple of the following: oregano, thyme, bay leaf, onion, garlic. When lamb is to be put on the spit, the base will be the same plus a couple of such seasonings as oregano, allspice, cumin, onion, garlic.

Here's a pleasant marinade for skewered beef. Try it the way it is, then subtract or add. Make up your own secret sauce. Serve the dish to family and guests. Delight — and maybe confound — recipe seekers!

Serve Picnic Style

To make life easy, serve your skewer meal picnic style. Put the beef under the broiler, bake some potatoes in the oven. Have a big Armenian-style salad ready — lettuce, tomato, wedges, green pepper, black olives. Cructs of olive oil and wine vinegar should stand beside the salad so each eater can add his own dressing. Salt and a pepper-grinder will be needed, too.

All the food goes on a kitchen counter beside a stack of dinner plates, knives, forks, napkins. Family and guests help themselves, eat any place they like. Everyone brings his empty plate to the counter when he's finished eating. Dad does the stacking.

Mother brings on the dessert. At this time of year, what's better than sponge cake layers filled with loads of strawberries and diced

Camera News

By IRVING DESFOR, The Associated Press

Lens hazards, such as the pressure-snapper thumb camera strap and the synchroizer cord, spoil enough pictures to warrant a warning. A special villain, which has caused many a photo to be blank look as well as blank pictures, is the usually protective lens cap. Make sure the lens is uncovered and clean.

Beware Of

Concentrated light streaks in print indicate trouble in the camera body or a pinhole in the bellows. Occasional streaks along the edges or at the beginning or end of a roll of film are usually due to improper loading of the film. Always load film in subdued light, never in direct light.

Too many people, uninitiated in photography, result from making an undue fuss about standing still for photos. Better results are obtained from smiling — one sort of natural or relaxed action. Even violent action sometimes has a peak of interest which can be stopped by snapshot speed. Try the formula of showing people, children and animals "doing something" and you'll see how much better it is than the usual "stand still... look at me!" variety.

The United States imports about 35 1/2 million pounds of black pepper a year.

'PIKE SLAYER MAY APPEAL TO HIGHER COURT

HARRISBURG (P)—John Wesley Wable, convicted turnpike "phantom slayer," has been denied an appeal for commutation of his death sentence but his attorney says more legal steps may be taken in an attempt to save the 25-year-old man's life.

The state Pardons Board yesterday refused to commute Wable's sentence to life imprisonment. The decision came within three hours after his appeal was presented to the board.

A. C. Scales, Greensburg, attorney for Wable, said later, however, that he had asked Gov. Leader for a stay of execution for his client and added "there is a possibility" an appeal might be filed with the state Supreme Court from a rejection of a writ of habeas corpus by Westmoreland County Court.

Deny Second Appeal

The board yesterday also refused to commute to life imprisonment the death sentence of George Capps, Levittown, convicted of the rape slaying of a 15-year-old schoolgirl.

Both Wable and Capps are scheduled to die in the electric chair next week, but successful legal action by Scales could possibly delay Wable's execution.

Three days ago Wable was refused a writ of habeas corpus in Westmoreland County Court. The state Supreme Court last May refused to grant him a new trial.

The Fayette County gunman was found guilty in Westmoreland County Court of shooting to death Harry F. Pitts, a truck driver who was sleeping in his vehicle parked along the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Faces Other Charges

In addition to the murder of the 39-year-old Bolling Green, Va., trucker, Wable also was charged with the gunshot slaying of another truck driver and the wounding of a third under almost identical circumstances.

Wable was captured in New Mexico five months after the Pitts shooting July 25, 1953.

Because of their circumstances, the shootings became known as the "phantom" slayings of the turnpike. Wable had repeatedly denied all charges.

Throughout his trial and through yesterday's pardon board hearing, Wable's defense centered largely around a contention that a man named "Jim Parks" did the actual shooting.

Others Were Involved

Scales pleaded that Wable "might be an accessory but others were involved."

Joseph Loughran, assistant district attorney for Westmoreland County, contended that there is no such person as Jim Parks. "He has not shown up and I don't know how we will find him in the future," he said.

Capps, 24, is to be executed for the Jan. 22, 1954 slaying of Martha Gibbons.

The girl's partially clad body was found in a gully three days after she did some baby sitting for a Levittown neighbor.

The application for commutation of the death sentence to life imprisonment blamed the entire crime on too much drinking.

On June 7, the state Supreme Court heard Capps' appeal against the Bucks County Court verdict and confirmed the decision of the lower court.

GOP Chairmen Will Convene October 4

HARRISBURG (P)—Republican County chairmen were invited today to meet here Oct. 4 to get a report on the party's campaign issues for 1956.

After the sessions, the group will leave with central Pennsylvania Republicans on a special train to Philadelphia where they will attend a Republican dinner.

AUTO DEALERS TO MEET

PITTSBURGH (P)—Problems of automobile retailing will be aired at the 35th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Automobile Assn. opening here on Monday.

Some 1,200 Pennsylvania new car dealers, salesmen guests and wives are expected to be on hand for the two-day party.

Leader Declares He Will Veto Sales Tax If Passed

HARRISBURG (P)—Gov. Leader held fast today to a promise that he will veto a sales tax if the state legislature tries to renew the levy.

The governor's surprise at his feeling toward the sales tax in telling his weekly news conference yesterday, "I haven't changed my mind on tax matters at all."

It has been Leader's contention even before he took office that he would never sign a sales tax into law.

The chief executive made the statement in answer to a direct query on whether he has altered his stand to veto a sales tax should such a measure ever reach his desk.

In declining to give a yes or no answer to the question, Leader said, "I don't know what position we may have to assume if we get to the point where we can't finance the schools, where we can't take care of the mentally ill."

He then cut short the tax discussions on the basis that he felt he should not be making "additional statements" on levies as long as conferences on the tax deadlock continue.

Income Tax Killed

This was in reference to sessions he has had with Republican and Democratic legislative leaders aimed at finding a solution to the commonwealth's fiscal woes.

Soon after Senate Republicans killed his classified income tax the conferences were set up. Leader proposed to raise some 400 million additional dollars from the income levy to help finance his proposed $1,800,000,000 budget for the 1955-57 biennium.

The GOP leader suggested a 2 per cent sales tax to replace the one that expired last August, increasing revenue estimates 76 million dollars and reducing the budget by 131 millions.

This proposal Leader rejected flatly.

The governor also said he will support a new decision which in effect would permit the state to buy only coal produced by the United Mine Workers.

"They (new regulations of the Property and Supplies Department) are in keeping with general government practices," he said. Under the regulations the state must purchase coal which is mined at prevailing wages including payments to health and welfare funds.

On the subject of a $40,000 window washing contract for state buildings awarded by the Property and Supplies Department to a nephew of former U.S. Sen. Guffy, Leader commented:

"We have found there is no breach of contract... If he doesn't prove to be competent then he will be dealt with."

Leader was urged Wednesday to cancel a contract awarded to Lowery A. Guffy, McKeesport. Two Harrisburg firms which held the contracts under Republicans for 16 years said Guffy was not properly set up to do the work.

Leader said a preliminary check on the matter had been made.

He fixed "possibly next Tuesday" for introduction of the administration's highway program in the House.

The measure includes proposals to boost the borrowing capacity of the Highway and Bridge Authority and boost passenger automobile license tag fees from $10 to $15 a year.

The governor said he had no objections to a proposed legislative investigation of conditions at the Pennsylvania Training School at Morgantown.

Probe Brutality Reports

"There's nothing static in running an institution. It's one of the most difficult jobs a man can have," he said.

The probe was asked to look into reports of brutality at the Washington County institution.

Asked about recent statements by House Speaker Andrews and Internal Affairs Secretary Genevieve Blatt on the possibility of a renewed sales tax, Leader answered:

"If their statements are considered in the context in which they were delivered, I don't think they could be considering a sales tax right now."

Miss Blatt said that the Democrats may be forced by Republicans to consider a sales tax as a way out of the state's fiscal dilemma while Andrews gave his qualified support to renewal of a sales tax as an "equalizing factor" with income and other taxes.

EXPECT TO HEAR RED INTENTIONS BEHIND SMILE

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (P)—Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov had the U. N. Assembly floor today for a general policy speech that Westerners hoped would reveal some of the intentions behind the Moscow smile.

Delegates felt the Soviet diplomat, here for his first Assembly in nine years, would bring up some important points on disarmament, including long-awaited Russian reaction to President Eisenhower's "open sky" plan.

Soviet Premier Bulganin has just sent Eisenhower a secret message reportedly dealing with the President's proposal for swapping military blueprints and airborne inspection teams.

Many also looked for Molotov to answer some of the challenging points Secretary of State Dulles brought up in his review of U. S. foreign policy.

Dulles Stands Firm

While his tone was moderate and his outlook optimistic, Dulles stood fast behind the U. S. position on such key issues as German unification, general resistance to communism in the free world and Soviet use of the veto to bar applicants for U. N. membership.

The disarmament question is not expected to come up in the Assembly until after the Big Four foreign ministers discuss it in Geneva next month.

In the Assembly Steering Committee, meanwhile, the U. S. vote for the second time helped reject a proposal to put a colonial issue down for debate. This time the committee rejected the Asian-African nations' call for discussion of self-determination for the French North African territory of Algeria, a proposal bitterly opposed by France.

Vote Is 8 To 5

The committee vote was 8-5, with two abstentions. Against debate were the United States, Britain, France, New Zealand, Norway, Chile, Luxembourg and Haiti. In favor were the Soviet Union, Poland, Mexico, Egypt and Thailand. Nationalist China and Ethiopia abstained.

The United States previously had voted with Britain in the committee to reject Greece's demand for debate on self-determination for the British colonial island of Cyprus. The Russians sided with Greece on that one.

Research Discovers Age Of Outdoorsmen

LANSING, Mich. (P)—In an effort to find out if junior, dad or grandpa get the most use of the outdoors the Michigan Conservation Dept. checked the ages on hunting and fishing licenses.

It learned that bow hunters were the youngest in the group with most of them in the 26-30 year bracket. Firearm hunters had most of their members between 31 and 35. Fishermen hit their peak between 36 and 40.

The search of the records turned up one-eight-year-old bow hunter and one of 89.

Mississippi's Sensational Murder Case Goes To Jury

SUMNER, Miss. (P)—Mississippi's most sensational trial in years may end today with a country jury deciding the fate of two white men accused of murdering a Chicago Negro boy.

A verdict is possible late this afternoon.

Only character witnesses were scheduled for 24-year-old Roy Bryant and his 36-year-old half-brother John William Milam.

Their attorneys said the defendants probably would not testify. The half-brothers are accused of murdering Emmett Louis Till, 14-year-old Negro, and dumping his weighted body into the muddy Tallahatchie River.

Defense attorneys appeared confident the all-male, all-white jury would free Bryant and Milam — principally, they felt, as a result of testimony by three defense witnesses attacking the identification of the battered body as that of Till.

Doubt Guilty Verdict
State attorneys privately voiced doubt they would get a guilty verdict.

Acquittal, however, doesn't end the publicized Till case. The defendants also face kidnap charges. The state rested its case yesterday.

Mrs. Mamie Bradley, Till's widowed mother, gave the trial a dramatic moment yesterday afternoon. She cried as she looked at a picture of the boy.

She said it was her son "beyond a shadow of a doubt."

But three defense witnesses cast doubt.

Sheriff H. C. Strider of Tallahatchie County said the body appeared to have been in the river "at least 10 days, if not 15."

A country undertaker, H. D. Malone, estimated the time in the water at 10-25 days.

Question Identification
Dr. L. B. Oiken, a physician from nearby Greenwood, put the time at from eight days to two weeks.

Defense attorneys asked Dr. Oiken: "In your opinion, could anyone have identified the body?"

Dr. Oiken answered: "I don't think so."

Q. If he had been his brother, could he? A. I doubt it.

Q. His mother? A. I doubt it.

All three witnesses said the body was bloated and badly decomposed.

This was a critical point because only three days elapsed from the time Till was taken from his uncle's home until the body was found by a teen-aged fisherman.

The defense concentrated its questioning on identification, the heart of the state's case. If the state failed in jurors' eyes to prove Till was murdered, Bryant and Milam could not be convicted of killing him.

Earlier, Chatham said the state would not seek the death penalty "since a substantial part of its evidence is circumstantial."

Thus, the defendants — if convicted — faced a maximum of life imprisonment, unless the jury overruled precedent and ordered death without the state asking for it.

Republicans Map Campaign On Assumption Ike Will Be Candidate For Re-election

By DON WHITEHEAD
WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican party chiefs are taking the big 1956 presidential campaign on the assumption that President Eisenhower will agree to seek a second term.

To scramble a few metaphors, the GOP command is out on a limb—ready to sink or swim with their eggs in one basket.

At Republican national headquarters they say very candidly that there is just the one basis for all the preliminary campaign groundwork—and it is progressing rapidly.

L. Richard Guy, GOP publicity chief, says: "The national committee is proceeding on the assumption that President Eisenhower will be the Republican candidate."

Ike Warns Leaders
After the recent meeting of GOP state chairmen in Denver, some party leaders weren't so sure, Eisenhower warned them not to nail their flag so securely to one mast that if the ship sank, they couldn't rip it off and tie it to another.

But GOP National Chairman Leonard Hall listened to everything the President had to say—and then announced he was more convinced than ever that Eisenhower would again head the ticket.

Actually, Republican leaders are ignoring Eisenhower's advice. They are nailing their flag securely to the Eisenhower mast while planning to capitalize on his personal popularity and the theme of "peace and prosperity."

Under these circumstances, it will place the Republicans on a fearfully embarrassing spot should Eisenhower not choose to run.

May Retire To Farm

Those who think he won't make a second race put up this argument: Eisenhower is now 64. He may want to turn the job over to a younger man and retire to his Gettysburg farm, where he can enjoy the last years of his life. They also say Mrs. Eisenhower has had enough of the White House and doesn't want the President to shorten his life with another four years of the crushing burden of the presidency.

But on the other side, they argue Eisenhower has a high sense of duty and that his duty is to remain in the White House another four years to carry out the program he has begun. They argue Ike won't let the party down and that he has come to the point where he enjoys his job as well as the political game.

In the midst of such uncertainty, the Republican chiefs appear confident they know their man and what he will do at the proper time. One of them said: "We think

BIG CARRIER PASSES SECOND TEST AT SEA

ABOARD USS FORRESTAL (AP)—The supercarrier Forrestal, which flunked her first sea trials three weeks ago, apparently has passed her second examination in excellent style.

The 59,000-ton giant had her "big day" Thursday when she was put through a series of rugged turns and was opened up full speed for a five-hour endurance run in the Atlantic.

Afterward, officials of the Newport News Shipyard, which built the warship, said they had never seen a big vessel handle any better.

The Forrestal underwent her full speed run between the Virginia and Delaware capes. She was clocked at approximately 35 miles an hour or 31 knots.

Bridge Worker, 26, Falls To His Death

GLOUCESTER, N.J. (AP)—Albert Straub, 26, of Camden, an apprentice ironworker on the new Walt Whitman Bridge, fell 100 feet to his death from an approach tower yesterday.

Straub, an employee of the Bethlehem Steel Co., was the second victim of the bridge construction job, which will link South Philadelphia with Gloucester across the Delaware River. John De Shields, 42, Philadelphia, a laborer, drowned last Nov. 17.

bled turns. At times she leaned noticeably, but in each instance she righted herself without difficulty.

On her first trial runs, the Forrestal was forced to return to port Aug. 31 because of mechanical trouble. Officials indicated the trouble—an overheating problem—has been solved with the installation of pumps on the lubricating and cooling system.

The ship is scheduled for delivery to the Navy Sept. 29 with commission set for Oct. 1.

Several of the smaller Leeward and Windward Islands lay in the path of the storm and islands off the coast of Venezuela were not out of danger.

The hurricane smashed across Barbados Island, flattening flimsy wooden structures in which the poorer of the island's 200,000 inhabitants live. Shattered buildings and fallen trees blocked the main highways.

Communications lines were down and the airport at Bridgetown was closed.

No accurate estimate of the damage was available but relief work was under way.

Three was no indication that Janet would strike the mainland. Forecasters pointed out she is a small, intense hurricane and may be on the weather map for a week or 10 days.

JANET MAKES SEA LOOK LIKE BOILING MILK

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Hurricane Janet, so powerful that her winds made ocean waters look like "boiling butter-milk," whirled westward in the Caribbean Sea today.

Big-eyed and capricious, Janet was bowling along in a northwesterly direction at about 15 m.p.h. At 5 a.m., EST, Navy reconnaissance planes spotted her about 425 miles south-southwest of San Juan, P.R.

She had changed her course somewhat, and all warnings were heeded down in the Windward Islands. Several of the smaller islands in the Windward group had been in the storm's path last night.

The Leeward Islands, to the north and northwest of the Windwards, awaited further word on Janet's behavior.

115 M.P.H. Winds
In a predawn estimate by observers at the San Juan Weather Bureau, Janet, the 10th tropical storm of the season, was throwing her weight around with winds up to 115 m.p.h. over a small area near the center. She was described as having a well-defined eye about 20 miles in diameter; her future development was listed as uncertain.

Gales whipped out 140 miles to the north and 90 miles to the south. A pace of about 15 m.p.h. was expected to continue throughout the morning.

Several of the smaller Leeward and Windward Islands lay in the path of the storm and islands off the coast of Venezuela were not out of danger.

The hurricane smashed across Barbados Island, flattening flimsy wooden structures in which the poorer of the island's 200,000 inhabitants live. Shattered buildings and fallen trees blocked the main highways.

Hoover Commission Report Is Criticized By Democrat

MT. POCONO, Pa. (AP)—The first round of hearings on the Hoover Commission report on water resources and power ended yesterday with sharp criticism of the report.

Rep. Jones (D-Ala.), chairman of a House subcommittee studying the report, and which held two days of hearings here, said in a statement that "it is clear that this region needs more federal help on water problems—not less, as the Hoover Commission recommends."

Jones read into the record a telegram from Gov. Averell Harriman of New York terming "unworkable, unrealistic and unfair to the state and localities involved" a part of the Hoover report which makes persons receiving federal aid on irrigation and flood control projects responsible for half of the cost.

Labor Joins Critics

Labor joined the chorus of dissent to the report.

Paul Krebs, New Jersey CIO president, called the recommendations "shocking and terrifying," adding:

"We do not believe that the benefits of this resource will ever be realized if we do not undertake a strong, positive program of federal development of the Delaware Basin."

Harry Boyer, Pennsylvania CIO Council president, said private power interests hope to have landed "the final death blow," through the Hoover report, against federally supported power projects.

Joseph E. Nicholson, manager of the Jefferson Electric Cooperative, Brookville, Pa., and Wesley S. Thomas, secretary treasurer of the Pennsylvania Rural Electrification Assn., Forkville, Pa., echoed the sentiments expressed by William C. Wenner, manager of the Northwestern Rural Electric Cooperative, Cambridge Springs, Pa.

Accused Of Favoritism

Wenner told the subcommittee the report "makes a bad monopolistic system worse." He said its recommendations favor the private profitmaking utilities and "would be completely ruinous for us."

Jones' subcommittee came here to look into the recent devastating floods in this area, as part of its study of water resources and power.

In his concluding statement, Jones declared federal leadership is needed to help the region recover from flood damage and to pull it "down from the heights of exorbitant rates."

Though interstate compacts "are strongly favored by the Hoover group," the Alabama Democrat declared, previous interstate plans have failed. He cited specifically the Interstate Commission on the Delaware River which witnesses termed a "failure" during the hearing.

Rep. Leonard Lipscomb (R-Cal.) criticized his colleague for his statement.

"I don't believe any committee or member of the committee should make conclusions after the first hearing," he said.

Wants Full Hearings

The proper time to make committee findings or opinions known, he added, should not come until the complete series of scheduled hearings is ended.

One witness at yesterday's session steered clear of the Hoover report controversy.

Miss Rebecca Gross, editor of the Lock Haven (Pa.) Express, outlined a three-point program for dealing with flood problems:

1. Flood forecasting.
2. Flood prevention and protection.
3. Rehabilitation of flood victims.

"It is indulging in fantasy to talk about local participation in flood prevention programs," she said. "Floods can be controlled as you would fight a foreign invader—by marshalling all of available resources."

SAVE

where most people save:

AT THE BANK

More people save at the bank than anywhere else—and here are a few of their mighty good reasons why:

"IT'S SAFE — sound bank management, carefully restricted investments, close government supervision, modern physical safeguards — plus the fact that deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $10,000 for each depositor — combine to protect my savings funds at the bank as they could be protected nowhere else!"

"IT'S CONVENIENT — I like to save where I can do all my banking at the same time — under the same roof!"

"IT'S HELPFUL — my money earns interest for me while I am waiting to use it — without my having to make an investment; and when I need credit, I find that having a growing bank balance is a big help in getting a low-cost bank loan!"

"IT'S PLEASANT — I have a special, personal feeling about saving at my bank — the bankers who serve me make me feel at home, and show a real interest in helping me with my money matters!"

Some folks give one reason, some another, some a combination of reasons . . . Come in, open a savings account with us, and discover for yourself the truth of what more than 69 million Americans agree on:

"THERE'S NOTHING QUITE LIKE MONEY IN THE BANK!"
